

Reaching for the Sky!

CoreNet Global Ohio / Kentucky Chapter

invites you to join your fellow members and guests for a presentation on the development of the Great American Insurance Tower at Queen City Square.

The first new office building in downtown Cincinnati in over a decade, the building has faced many challenges since it was envisioned in the early 90's. This presentation will focus on how the project evolved, the role Great American Insurance played in making it happen, the financing challenges, and the direction that the project is taking as it rises to become the tallest building on the Cincinnati skyline.
