What can businesses do to promote workforce housing?

Become engaged in local planning process

- ✍* When a project is up for review or when regulatory reform is introduced that will impact housing, testify in support at public hearings
- ✍* Contact your colleagues to do the same

Become politically engaged

- ✍* When housing legislation is introduced and needs support, testify at public hearings
- ✍* Contact your colleagues to do the same

Become engaged with your local workforce housing group

- ✍* Join a committee
- ✍* Host an informational gathering at your workplace and invite your colleagues to learn more about the workforce housing problem and potential solutions
- ✍* Provide demographic information through your HR department or an employee survey on:
 - ✍* Total # employed
 - ✍* Categories of employment
 - ✍* Pay ranges
 - ✍* Commuting patterns – where are you living and why? Would you rather live closer to work?
 - ✍* Rent or own?
 - ✍* Anecdotal information on any difficulty attracting or retaining employees
