Transfer Articulation Agreement
Cincinnati State Technical and Community College Honors Program/
University of Cincinnati University Honors Program

Originating Institution: Cincinnati State Technical and Community College
Degree/Program: Honors Program

Target Institution: University of Cincinnati
Degree/Program: University Honors Program

Introduction: This agreement details the applicability* of courses and experiences from the Honors Program of Cincinnati State Technical and Community College (CSTCC) to the University Honors Program (UHP) of the University of Cincinnati (UC).

The acceptability of credit to UC is determined by the central credit evaluation process. The purpose of this agreement and its appendices is to describe which of those acceptable credits apply to requirements in this particular program at UC.

*Applicable transfer courses satisfy degree requirements for graduation. The purpose of this Transfer Articulation Agreement is to identify transfer courses that will apply toward program requirements.

Acceptable transfer courses meet all UC requirements and credit is granted. Acceptable credit that does not satisfy a student's degree requirements is accepted as free elective credit.

Articulation Overview: Individuals who have graduated as a member of the Cincinnati State Honors Program will be accepted into the University of Cincinnati University Honors Program. Students will be granted credit for two UHP honors experiences. Students will be expected to complete a one-credit hour course, Gateway to University Honors (HNRS1010), and engage in three other honors experiences in order to graduate as a University Honors Scholar.

Admission Criteria:
The University of Cincinnati University Honors Program is a selective admission program. Entry as a transfer student normally requires an academic record showing at least at 3.2 cumulative collegiate GPA, at least 30 semester credit hours and completion of the application to the program.

Cincinnati State students who have graduated as a member of the Honors Program and who have been admitted to the University of Cincinnati will be automatically admitted to the University Honors Program upon application at www.uc.edu/honors. Students will be granted credit for two honors experiences. Students will be expected to complete a one-credit hour course, Gateway to University Honors (HNRS1010), engage in three other honors experiences and have a cumulative university GPA of 3.2 or higher in order to graduate as a University Honors Scholar.
