UNIVERSITY OF Cincinnati

You've spent years
focused on your career
and raising a family ...

Now's the time to rediscover the joy of learning.

Osher Lifelong Learning
Institute (OLLI) at the University of Cincinnati offers great classes and terrific teachers in a relaxed, informal environment — and you don't have to worry about tests or grades.

What classes do we offer?

OLLI at UC offers close to 300 classes which are taken by over 1400 members each year. This quarter there are more than 100 classes. Most classes meet for 90 minutes weekly over an eight-week period. As an OLLI member you can choose from a wide assortment of lectures, seminars, field trips and special events.

Who are our teachers?

Many of our moderators are distinguished professors, both active and retired. Other teachers are experts in a variety of fields and include members who want to share their personal passion for a particular subject. There is one common denominator: they teach for the sheer love of teaching.

What are requirements to join?

Everyone age fifty and above can join. The only prerequisite is a desire to learn.

What does it cost?

For a single $80 payment each quarter, you can take as many classes as you like during that quarter. Most people sign up for three courses. That's roughly $3 an hour – about the price of a cup of coffee at Starbucks. (If you cannot afford to pay the $80, scholarships are available. Just contact the OLLI office for information.)

Extra benefits for OLLI members.

Rediscovering the joy of learning is just the beginning for OLLI members. Consider these other benefits:

- Discounted prices at local cultural events such as: Playhouse in the Park, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, College-Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati

Shakespeare Company, Chamber Music Network and others.

- Reduced rates to join the UC Faculty Club and main campus gym/recreation center.
- OLLI sponsored special events include the holiday and spring luncheons and cultural programs such as Gilbert and Sullivan, the US Air Force Band, The Tuskegee Airmen and much more.
- In partnership with Sycamore Senior Center and Tri-Health Seniority take reasonably priced day trips, concerts and tours to events like Riverbend, Music Hall, the Ohio State Fair and Reds games.

Above all, meet interesting and accomplished people who will share with you the many benefits of being an OLLI member.

How to use this catalog

All class information in this catalog is presented in three different ways: by category, by class number, and by location/day of week.

Beginning on page 5, classes are broken out by category type (history, music, language, etc.) then listed alphabetically by class title, location, and class number.

Beginning on page 8, classes are listed in numerical order providing title, day, time, location, a brief description of the course and the background of the moderator.

Beginning on page 17, classes are listed by location, day of week, and time.

Depending upon your preference, you may want to begin by checking classes either by category, to determine your interest, or by location/day of week, to fit your schedule. Then you can go to the numerical listing by class number for more detailed information on each class that interests you.

Once you have decided which classes you would like to take, you may register online, by mail or by phone. To review classes and register online, follow the information in the box below. For mail registration, use the form located on the inside back page of this catalog.

OLLI is offering a wide variety of classes this quarter. Classes which are new or which have been changed or updated substantially are marked NEW or UPDATED. We hope you find this catalog easy to use and look forward to welcoming you as you Rediscover the Joy of Learning!

Classroom Availability & Class Size

Classrooms at any of UC's OLLI locations are provided by the University at no expense. For this reason, we are assigned classrooms on an availability basis for the particular day, time, and location of each class.

Some classes are limited in size due to these space constraints or to accommodate the format of the class. Please do not attend classes for which you do not receive a confirmation indicating you are registered. If you find you are unable to attend a class, please notify the OLLI Office so we can allow other interested members to enroll.

Parking at UC Blue Ash

Parking at UC Blue Ash is provided by the College at no expense to OLLI members. (College students pay for their parking via their student fees.) Please observe No Parking in slots with yellow lines.

1501 Art and Hobby Workshop

UPDATED

Wednesdays, 1-3 p.m. (MKV)

Come share your hobby or art talent in a casual atmosphere. We love creative people. It's your call. Bring what you need with you, and get ready to have a good time. Large tables are waiting in a sunny, pleasant room at Maple Knoll. We enjoy talking and getting to know how talented our wonderful OLLI members are. Help is available on your project if requested.

Moderator: Glenn King, BFA from the University of Texas and L'Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris, France. Glenn is currently illustrating a series of books on Child Safety for Trauma Service at Children's Hospital.

2005 Preview of Opera

UPDATED

Thursdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

We will study in depth some of the operas to be presented in the area, either by Cincinnati Opera or CCM. Included will be recorded performances of the complete operas.

Moderator: Richard Sininger, AB, Oberlin College; MEd, Miami Univ.; English teacher, Forest Hills School District for over 31 years, mostly teaching American literature. Lifelong love for and interest in opera - attended over 1,600 performances of over 300 operas.

2018 Writing for Children

UPDATED

Thursdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Do you have an idea for a children's book? This class will take you from that idea to a creative manuscript that could be submitted to an editor for publication. The class will discuss the pros and cons of self publishing. Students will be asked to review their favorite children's book. The first 15 minutes of class will be free-style creative writing on an assigned topic. All in-class writing, book reviews, lectures, guest speakers and marketing tools will help the student create a written story of 10 pages or less that is suitable for children ages three through early teens.

Moderator: Connie Trounstine was a reporter with "The Kentucky Post" for 29 years. She is the author of "The Worst Christmas Ever" - a chapter book for readers 8-12 years old. Her new book "Fingerprints on the Table" will be published by The White House Historical Assoc. in 2012.

In the last class period, you will have the opportunity to share some of your own travel experiences.

Co-Moderators: Harold Rice, BSEE, University of KY; registered PE; retired Senior Project Engineer, GE & Fluor Fernald. Fae Audre Rice, BAEd, University of KY; retired high school science and math teacher. They have travelled to over 50 countries since their retirement.

2054 Computer Conversation Anyone Can Understand

UPDATED

Thursdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

5 WEEK COURSE from January 19-February 16

Dan Marshall will again break computer technology down into simple terms and will answer your questions about any computer-related topics in a professional and easy to understand manner. Bring your questions, a pad of paper, and write down all the solutions you'll learn! And if we're lucky, Dan will bring his guitar and sing us a tune.

Moderator: Dan Marshall, Technology Specialist, Entrepreneur, and Business owner, has over 24 years in technology, marketing, and development. He owns Detiem Communications, a business firm that helps small businesses with development, marketing and technology, Web site design, search engine optimization and social network marketing. He is president of ListRocket, an email/social networking tool, and runs "Get Down Give Back", a nonprofit organization.

2061 Lewis and Clark: Journey to Another America

Thursdays, 2-3:35 p.m. (UCBA)

Journey with Lewis and Clark on their spectacular expedition through the unknown wilderness to the Pacific Northwest. We will focus on understanding how American attitudes, national and international politics, contacts with Indians and economic pressures shaped the expansion across North America at the turn of the 19th century. Each participant will be loaned a book of supporting material. The class will feature readings, slides and reproduced documents which will be the basis for discussion.

Moderator: Stephen Appel, AB, MBA, Univ. of Chicago; retired vice-president, Federated Department Stores; former chair, OLLI.

2062 Italian Conversation and Readings

Thursdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

We will read some easy material in Italian and will conduct conversation based on these readings and other topics of interest, aiming to develop some facility in the everyday use of the language. This course is most suitable for those with some prior knowledge of Italian including attendees of prior OLLI classes (Introduction to Italian and/or Italian 201).

Moderator: Joe Iavicoli, PhD, chemical engineering University of Rome, his native city. He is a US resident and citizen since 1956. He is a retired research manager from P&G and has taught at several language schools since 1994.

2136 Creative Writing - Fiction Only

Thursdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

Write, critique, rewrite. In-class assignments, the group that promises, not a Pulitzer Prize, but a door prize. CLASS LIMITED TO 12.

Moderator: George Weber, an old guy who writes - slowly.

2154 Adventuring into Photography

Thursdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

Photography is fun. We'll use as a resource "Learning to see Creatively" by Bryan Peterson. Get a copy. Bring it, your digital camera and a few photographs to the first session. We'll discuss what you like to shoot - pets, children, landscapes, animals, etc. You'll make photographs each week which we'll view in class. This class is for those who have never taken an OLLI photography course. CLASS LIMITED TO 20.

Moderator: Peter Nord, PhD, has over 50 years experience in various aspects of photography

2157 Planning Your Second Adulthood

Thursdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

Would you like to continue an active, contributing life after retirement? Do you need to earn income or are you mostly interested in volunteering? Are you having trouble figuring out how to move forward with your interests? This course will explore your interests and needs, assist you in reviewing and defining your skills, help you prepare a resume, identify outlets for your interests and assist you with strategies to accomplish your goals.

Moderator: Kent Friel, MBA, UC 1965; retired senior vice-president of Lee Hecht Harrison, world's leading career services firm. He is currently Community Fellow with Knowledge Works Foundation.

2158 Ancient Cities of Mexico

Thursdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

4 WEEK COURSE from January 19 - February 9.

This course looks at the ancient cities of the Aztecs, Maya, and their predecessors, focusing on urban functions, cosmological symbolism, and development over time (ca. 1000 BC - AD 1500). Explore some of the most intriguing and significant archaeological discoveries of the 20th and 21st centuries with specific examples from Teotihuacan, Palenque, Chichen Itza, and Tenochtitlan.

Moderator: Dr. Karen Garrard. Archaeologist, researcher, and cultural resource management professional. PhD, Anthropology, SUNY Buffalo, specializing in Central America.

2159 Financial Planning in Retirement

Thursdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

How well do you understand your financial plan? Does it still reflect your situation accurately or have the events of the past few months and/or years disrupted your well made plans? We invite you to join us as we review each element of the financial planning process from investments and cash flow projections to estate planning. Classes are designed to be interactive, topical and fun. Please join us in one of OLLI's longest running retirement planning courses.

Class descriptions by CLASS NUMBER

Co-Moderators: Thomas P. Carroll, CFP and Robert P. Carroll, CPA, CFP are principals of The Alpine Financial Group, a fee-only wealth management and planning firm. Members of the firm have taught over 35 OLLI retirement planning courses over the last 15 years.

2236 Religion Beyond Dogma

Tuesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Each week, a different panel of religious leaders will discuss their various beliefs. Panels will consist of Catholic, Islamic, Jewish and Protestant teachers/leaders. This course does not seek to reduce faith to a common denominator; rather it attempts to identify areas of agreement and disagreement among individuals of different religions. Each participant will express his or her individual view of faith, with the understanding that even within a single religious tradition, individual believers may not always agree. We will also discuss how or should the different faith groups work together or individually to make the world more peaceful and just.

Co-Moderators: Mendle Adams, Retired Ordained United Church of Christ Pastor; AB, MAR, Professor of New Testament, and Howard Eckstein, BBA, MBA; retired value engineering consultant.

2246 How Can Plays Help In Understanding Families?

Tuesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

5 WEEK COURSE on January 24, 31, February 14, 21 and March 6.

We will discuss "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" (Kreidler) - a controversial subject of interracial marriage still illegal at the time (1/24, 1/31); "The Retreat from Moscow" (W. Nicholson) - the emotional fallout from the ending of a 30 year marriage (2/14, 2/21); and, we'll end with Neil Simon's "Prisoner of Second Avenue" - the effect on a family of a husband's job loss (3/6). Discussion themes include parenting, gender roles and transgenerational issues of loss, love, etc. This is a fun, interactive class. While not required, reading each play beforehand will enrich participation. For the first class, read the first play listed.

Moderator: Dr. Karen Gail Lewis has been practicing family therapy for 39 years and has authored numerous books about marriage, gender relationships, singles and adult siblings. For more information, see her website at DrKarenGailLewis.com.

2254 Hero/Heroine's Journey

Tuesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

It is the object of this course to derive insights about our lives from close reading of lasting works of literary art. We will discuss "Daisy Miller" and "The Jolly Corner" by Henry James and "A Perfect Day For Bananafish" by J. D Salinger.

Moderator: James Bridgeland, Jr. BA(mcl) Akron University; MA Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences; Jur.D Harvard Law school; advanced studies in literature at Oxford and Cambridge Universities.

2264 The Great Opera Singers

Tuesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Rafael de Acha, moderator of last year's "Song through the Ages," "A Brief History of Italian Opera" and "The Great Singers," returns to OLLI with an updated version of last year's "The Great Opera Singers." Participants will listen to stars of 20th-century operas such as Maria Callas, Joan Sutherland, Marilyn Horne and Luciano Pavarotti while also "discovering" lesser-known singers from Italy, Austria, Russia, Scandinavia, Spain and France.

Moderator: Rafael de Acha, opera and theater stage director. Rafael received his Bachelor's degree from CCM and his Master's degree from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. Now residing in Cincinnati after a forty-year career in the arts, Rafael and his wife, Kimberly, are devoted fans of the Queen City.

2265 How to Beat the Travel Industry

Tuesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

This course will demonstrate how best to select tours, tour companies, and travel experts to get the most for your money and to avoid rip-offs. It will also show you how to comparative shop hotels, guides, transportation types and a zillion other tidbits to improve your travel and save you money.

Moderator: Jody Howison is a retired UC geography professor, author of beau coup travel articles and the volunteer planner of dozens of trips for such groups as the Cincinnati Art Museum, the Cincinnati Historical Society and the Ohio Historical Decorative Arts Association, as well as hundreds for who else? Herself!

2267 Gardening in Pots

Tuesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Co-Moderators: Fran Goldman, BS, Math and Physics,

Simmons College; Volunteer in Education for Krohn Conservatory; Cincinnati Nature Center; Docent, Taft Museum. Loves gardening. Jeff Kapela, retired from Cincinnati Park Board; 23 years at Krohn Conservatory; has run programs for garden clubs and for the Master Gardener program specializing in house plants.

2320 Travel Seminar

Tuesdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

This course will focus on travel tips, how to find the best prices and provide information on "hot" destinations. Learn about car rentals, travel insurance, European rail travel, etc.

Moderator: David Yockey, AB, MEd, MA, DS; retired as a department head at Milford High School and has worked as an independent travel consultant with Provident Travel for the past 19 years. He has traveled extensively.

2365 Our Cosmic Journey

Tuesdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

We will use "Journey of the Universe" by Brian Thomas Swimme and Mary Evelyn Tucker as the jump off for this exploration of the physical, biological, and psychic evolution of the cosmos over the past 13 ½ billion years. The insights of physics, biology, philosophy, psychology and theology will be used to experience our interdependence and interconnection with every part of this multi-dimensional and multi-layered universe. The book is a requirement for the course, and the first chapter should be read before the first class.

Moderator: Bob Sauerbrey has taught literature, classical languages, theater, and theology in high school and college since 1967. He has an AB in Philosophy and Classical Languages from Loyola University Chicago; MEd in Social, Psychological, and Philosophical Foundations in Education from the University of Cincinnati; and an MA in Theology from Xavier University.

2445 Exploring the American Revolution: Stories & Lore

Mondays, 2:00 p.m. - 3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Little known stories about Jefferson, Washington, and lesser known patriots including the common citizens and women of the Revolution put our country at the vanguard of liberty all around the world. We will discuss people, places, battles and things that most people have never read about in traditional textbooks including discussions during the Constitutional Convention about the delegates' struggles to form a more perfect union.

Moderator: Tony Steer has done historic re-enactments of Patrick Henry for the past six years, and most recently, he engaged in a debate with Thomas Jefferson (Bill Barker) of Colonial Williamsburg. He has been interested in the American Revolution for about 12 years. It all started with a trip to Colonial Williamsburg with his wife, Marty.

2455 The Play's the Thing

Mondays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Comedies, tragedies, one act plays...we do them all without memorizing a single word. Whether you are inexperienced or have acted previously, you are going to find our class enjoyable. You may help choose the plays, read, direct, act, or just be part of the audience. The choice is yours. CLASS LIMITED TO 25.

Co-Moderators: Flo Sterman-Schott and Karen Zaugg, theatre enthusiasts.

2460 Administrative Law -What It Is & How It Works for You

Mondays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

We will review the history of administrative law and the legal processes controlling all federal agencies. We will be discussing current events and the role of the various federal agencies in carrying out the will of the people. We will explore citizen's rights and responsibilities and how they are being shaped by current cases before the Supreme Court.

Moderator: Lee Tougas, former Adjunct Professor of Administrative Law, Concordia University.

2461 Against the Stream: The Buddha's Radical Path

Mondays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

When the Buddha had his Enlightenment experience, he feared that people would not understand the Path he'd found because it went "against the stream" - against the accepted truths of the culture of the time and against our human inclination to seek an easy way out of difficult situations. In this course, we'll examine the Teachings in the light of the ideas current in the Buddha's day and in ours and in light of our natural tendency to stick with old comfortable positions even when those no longer work.

Moderator: Richard Blumberg has been studying Buddhism and the Buddha's teachings for more than 40 years and has been a practicing Buddhist for the past 15 years. He has been teaching classes in Buddhism at OLLI and elsewhere in Cincinnati since 2005. All class readings will be available online at his Dharma Study Web site, <http://dharmastudy.org>.

2520 Preparing for Life's Uncertainties (and Certainties!)

Mondays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

7 WEEK COURSE from January 23-March 5.

Good Lord Willing and the Creek Don't Rise! Hospice's For the Life of Me Series continues with: "How We Die...Cultural and Religious Differences at End-Of-Life," "Paws that Refresh... Pet Therapy and its Holistic Benefits at the Bedside," "Sleep, Perchance to Dream...How to Have a Good Night's Sleep," "Your Loved One is Dying. What Can You Say?" "Hospice Isn't Just for Cancer...Pathways Program, Managing Symptoms and Focusing on Quality Of Life," "Life Review...Examining the Meaning of One's Life and Leaving a Legacy" and the new Ohio Advanced Directives "What the Heck is Molst/Polst and Why Should I Care?": One class will meet at Hospice's In-Patient Center, 4310 Cooper Rd.

Moderator: Patricia Gaines, Community Outreach Coordinator, Hospice of Cincinnati.

2640 In the News

Wednesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

We will select serious and some not-so-serious articles from the previous week's news that call for full discussion pro and con. The real success of the course will depend on the degree of participation and exchange of often conflicting positions and ideas by as many class members as possible. We may not change anyone's opinion (nor will we try). We may change the pace from week to week with an "outside" political speaker or two, or a guest moderator.

Co-Moderators: A couple of retired (but not tired) engineers: Neal Jeffries and Dick Lenz, both active OLLI volunteers and Board members.

2651 Next Best Thing to a Hot Romance

Wednesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Lusting for a new adventure where you can lose all sense of time, feel uplifted at the end of each day and live it all again tomorrow, only better? Then explore the noble craft of writing. Experience the wonder of words and how to use them. Learn to make time and place real in people's minds. You'll write a short story, a poem, a memoir each week, share it with your classmates and receive praise. And, your moderator will pontificate briefly on the fun parts of writing that can bring your work alive. CLASS LIMITED TO 12.

Moderator: Barry Raut, BS Business Administration, minor equivalent in English and European literature, creative writing, Miami University. Writes novel-length fiction, short stories, memoirs, art pieces, travel essays. Author of Devil's Gold, recently published novel on art masterpieces stolen by the Nazis in Paris during WWII.

2652 Confrontation-Listening Skills

Wednesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

If you sometimes wish the quality of your communication with others was more enjoyable and even appreciated, then this class might be what you have been looking for. This class will teach specific skills (even suggest specific words) that research shows, when used effectively, people will respond to you in more positive ways. This is definitely a participation class where participants practice skills in a safe environment. Class sessions will be "sequential". Each week will build on the week before. CLASS LIMITED TO 24.

Moderator: Everett Nissly, BS Ball State Univ.; M Ed, Miami Univ.; retired school principal/administrator; past adjunct instructor of Effectiveness Training for Educators (six different colleges/ universities); world traveler/mountain hiker.

2653 A Brief History of German Opera

Wednesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Rafael de Acha, moderator of last year's "Song through the Ages," "A Brief History of Italian Opera" and "The Great Singers," returns to OLLI with a new course featuring audio-visual examples and historical background on German opera. We will examine the great German operas of Mozart, Beethoven, Wagner, Strauss and Kurt Weill.

Moderator: Rafael de Acha received his Bachelor's degree from CCM and his Master's degree from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. Now residing in Cincinnati after a forty-year career in the arts, Rafael and his wife, Kimberly, are devoted fans of the Queen City.

2654 Issues and Answers for Boomers Plus

Wednesdays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Do you feel you are up a creek without a paddle when it comes to navigating the "Waters of Living Longer"? Come hear 8 speakers from Cincinnati Senior Connection provide expert advice, facts and legislative updates to smooth your ride. Topics for discussion (often lively) include Medicare, home health care and other care options, making your money last, Social Security, paying for extended care, pre-funeral planning, estate planning, geriatric care management, downsizing tips and more! What attendees said: "Varied topics covering all aspects of aging," "Things to think about and do before the need" and "Very informative."

Moderator: Karen Rosenthal, MHA (Xavier U.), Independent and Certified LTC Insurance Planner. Member, Cincinnati Senior Connection, a group of "Experts and Resources linked together to make lifestyle transitions easier for all family members."

2730 The Rules of Golf

UPDATED

Wednesdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

If you play golf, if you wish to learn the changes to the Rules of Golf which become effective Jan. 1, 2012, if at times you would like to have a better idea of how to proceed on the course, if you and your fellow competitors argue about how to apply the Rules--this course is for you. You will learn the structure of the rules, how to apply them and how to avoid violating the most frequently broken rules. Many film clips from actual competitions are used to illustrate the rules.

Moderator: Jim Cissell has been a golf rules official for almost 60 USGA national championships, including 15 US Opens, and over 30 NCAA national championships and numerous other competitions. He is also President of the Greater Cincinnati Golf Association. During the day, he is Judge of the Hamilton County Probate Court.

2749 Plan a Comfortable Financial Future

UPDATED

Wednesdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

Take charge of your own financial affairs. Learn about retirement strategies to minimize the worry of running out of money, how to protect against loss, reduce taxes, and fight inflation. Learn about common financial mistakes that can cost you money. Evaluate your tolerance for risk. Evaluate which investments are appropriate for this stage of your financial life. Learn how to know whether you're paying excessive fees on your savings and investments. Guest speakers will address legal, accounting, and other components of a successful financial plan. Get your questions answered.

Moderator: Gary E. Hollander CFP, has been providing financial educational workshops for over 35 years and was recently awarded "FIVE STAR Best in Client Satisfaction Wealth Manager" by Cincinnati Magazine. President of Hollander & Associates LLC since 1976.

2750 Dispute Resolution:

NEW

Negotiating Through Conflict

Wednesdays, 3:35-5 p.m. (UCBA)

An insider's examination of how well-publicized public and private disputes have been resolved through negotiation and other dispute resolution strategies. Analysis behind the scenes of successful and failed negotiations and the value of uncovering both parties' interests, creating options, communicating and listening purposefully, assessing the parties' alternatives to agreement and developing a good working relationship with the other side. Interactive video and role-playing are used to demonstrate and discuss successful negotiation and mediation skills and strategy.

Moderator: James K.L. Lawrence. Ohio State BA; JD. Practicing labor law and employment law specialist and lead negotiator as a member of Frost Brown Todd LLC. Adjunct Professor of negotiation, mediation and dispute resolution at The Ohio State University, Pepperdine University and University of Cincinnati Colleges of Law.

2812 Basic Word Processing Skills

Thursdays, 1-2:25 p.m. (UCBA)

NOTE THE ONE O'CLOCK START TIME

Get more from your computer. Learn word processing basics. Create enhanced documents with headers and footers, pictures, etc. Learn how to work with templates and find internet content and put it into a document. Prerequisite skills and/or experience: Completed the OLLI course "Managing your Home Computer System;" or able to work with Windows 10 files management, use Flash Drives for storing documents and image files and make back up of files on a CD-RW. If you do not have Microsoft Office 2010, we can install a trial copy on your personal computer, or you can practice on the UC Blue Ash Computers. CLASS LIMITED TO 28.

Moderator: James F. Daiker, EdD is an adjunct instructor at UC Blue Ash. He has been working with computers since 1966. Initially using computers in his work in special education, he later became a college professor training business majors how to use computers. His specialty is computer application programs.

2902 History of the Cincinnati Reds - Part I

Fridays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

The course will cover Reds history from the 1860s through the 1920s. Featured topics will be the 1869 Red Stockings, the historic Cincinnati ballparks of the 1800s, the Opening Day tradition, the 1919 World Series, and tours of the Reds Hall of Fame and Green Diamond Baseball Gallery in Montgomery.

Moderator: Greg Rhodes is the Cincinnati Reds Team Historian and was the first director of the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum. Greg has also written six books on the Reds.

2931 Life Force: An Introduction to the Chi

Fridays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

Throughout history, cultures around the world have spoken of an energy that, in English, is referred to as the life force. Known by many names, it is literally the force that holds us together. When the life force leaves an organism, it falls apart. All living things decompose at death. What is it? How can it be experienced? There are techniques, attitudes and understandings that aid in the quest and others that hinder. Topics include meditation, prayer, yoga, martial arts, healing techniques, hypnosis, crystals, dowsing, diet and life styles. There will be guest speakers on health and martial arts.

Moderator: Donna Jean Spaeth began her quest for the Chi in grade school when interest in physics and comparative religion merged to become a lifelong interest in energy. Seeking information from both scientific and metaphysical sources led to a degree in laser optics and long term practice.

2932 Living Healthy to 100+

Fridays, 2-3:25 p.m. (UCBA)

4 WEEK COURSE from January 20-February 10.

Did you know you are designed to live to 120 years old? Why do people get sick? How can you regain your health and keep it? The leading killers of Americans are heart disease, cancer, stroke and diabetes. These are all caused by lifestyle choices, which mean they are ALL 100% preventable! This course will give you the tools you need to start living congruently with your genes in order to regain and maintain your health. We will cover what your genetic requirements are for DIET, MOVEMENT and THOUGHTS based upon the most up-to-date science and research.

Moderator: Dr. Brent Owens has been practicing Upper Cervical Chiropractic Care and wellness coaching for 6 years. He has Bachelor's degrees in Health Science and Human Biology and extensive post-graduate training in upper cervical spine and brain stem anatomy and neurophysiology, wellness and living a genetically congruent lifestyle!

3401 A Pruning Seminar for the Homeowner

Monday, 2 HOUR CLASS, 9:30-11:30 a.m. (SGC)

1 DAY COURSE on March 5.

Learn from the horticulture staff of Spring Grove Cemetery and Arboretum how proper pruning can make all the difference for your trees and shrubs. They'll show you how you can apply the right techniques and tools for your yard. Walking one mile is required. Enter the main gate, 4521 Spring Grove Avenue. Watch for seminar signage. Will be held rain or shine. Dress for the weather. CLASS LIMITED TO 50.

Moderator: Thomas L. Smith has been with Spring Grove Cemetery for 40 years and is currently Executive Vice President.

4302 Photography Workshop Challenges

Wednesdays, 2:30-4 p.m. (SSC)

7 WEEK COURSE from January 18-February 29.

This course is in a workshop format, where the Moderators serve as facilitators and coaches. Participants will share their work, and all will participate in gentle discussion. Each week, we will have a challenge assignment of six photos to share. The workshop is designed for participants who have previously completed a photography course, have a basic working knowledge of their camera and want to engage at the next level. For beginners, other OLLI photo classes are available. CLASS LIMITED TO 14.

Co-Moderators: Howard Todd is a professor at the University of Cincinnati Clermont College and a lifelong photographer. He has been commissioned for a series of prints for display at a new medical complex. Bernadette Clemens-Walatka is a member of Miami University's professional staff. She has developed her skills through photo workshops and independent shootings. Both moderators have won regional awards and have been featured in juried shows.

4401 Beyond the Snapshot: Digital Foundations

Mondays, 2:30-4 p.m. (SSC)

7 WEEK COURSE from January 23-March 5.

Photography is the use of technology to create artistic images. In this beginner class, we combine both aspects to "make" a good photograph by increasing our technical knowledge to improve the artistic quality of our photographs. The sessions weave together the power and limitations of the camera with the basics of visual composition. Any digital camera will work for this class. We will discuss inexpensive digital cameras at the first class meeting for those who don't have one. There will be weekly assignments between classes to "try out" the techniques. The assignments are "learning by doing." CLASS LIMITED TO 14.

Co-Moderators: Howard Todd is a professor at the University of Cincinnati Clermont College and a lifelong photographer. He has been commissioned for a series of prints for display at a new medical complex. Bernadette Clemens-Walatka is a member of Miami University's professional staff. She has developed her skills through photo workshops and independent shootings. Both moderators have won regional awards and have been featured in juried shows.

5008 C. G. Jung Study/Discussion Group

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

Carl Jung developed a vast work concerning self knowledge, personal development, art, culture and spirituality. In the first class, we will start by selecting topics to study in-depth, which pertain to Jungian concepts in our own lives and the world around us. Then class members will actively participate in researching and presenting their topics for class discussion. Resources will be suggested by the moderators.

Co-Moderators: Sally Moore, Coordinator of Greater Cincinnati Friends of Jung and retired director of Research Services, Convergys, Inc.; Joan Murray, Occupational therapist and certified chemical dependency counselor; and Thomas Flautt, PhD, retired P&G executive, presently involved with organizational development, executive coaching and personality research.

5025 Intermediate Digital Photography Workshop

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

This workshop will help those of you with a basic understanding of photography and a desire to learn more at the next skill level. You will learn to train your eyes to find artistic photo opportunities and to make choices, thus turning what you see into photos you will be proud to show as works of art. This is not a technology class. We are learning to see differently with a camera as a tool. Weekly assignments will combine with sharing the results to advance your knowledge and abilities beyond the basic level. CLASS LIMITED TO 12.

Moderator: Muriel Foster is an award-winning photographer whose fine art photographs are in corporate and private collections. Her exhibition experience includes major regional competitions, national shows and four one woman shows. She is a published author, writer and photographer. Muriel's own studio and gallery is at The Loveland Artist Studios on Main where she teaches private classes.

5044 Give More Regards to Broadway - Segment Five

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

We will continue our trip through Broadway musical history finishing with the years between 1970 and the present. We'll focus on some of the great composer/ lyricists of the time including Jerry Herman, Stephen Schwartz, Stephen

Class descriptions by CLASS NUMBER

Sondheim and current Disney Productions. Using discussion, music and segments of video and movies, we'll explore the great musicals of the day.

Moderator: Doug Iden is a big fan of Broadway musicals having seen hundreds of productions and has an extensive collection of original cast albums. Recently retired as a financial advisor.

5051 Education and American Culture

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

Formal education expresses American values, beliefs and politics. We will examine the history and contemporary problems surrounding it.

Moderator: Dennis O'Keefe, PhD, Political science and experienced teacher of constitutional law.

5103 Tai Chi Experience

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (ADI)

This class offers an introduction to the soft, graceful, non-competitive Chinese martial art of Tai Chi. Patient instruction allows individuals to proceed at their own pace and ability. As a gentle physical exercise form, doing Tai Chi can lead to increased stamina and muscle tone, to improved balance and to more effective breathing. As a form of "meditation in motion," Tai Chi can provide mental benefits of stress reduction and can provide for a more relaxed disposition. Performing Tai Chi can be used as a convenient and effective regular exercise program.

Moderator: David Schiel, Tai Chi enthusiast.

5106 History of Immigration to Cincinnati

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (ADI)

The move westward from Europe to America and Cincinnati, with examples from our own local history and genealogy. Group participation is encouraged.

Moderator: Josephine Gately, born in England; her grandparents were Irish; educated in England and studied at the London School of Economics; immigrated to Canada; MSW, Smith College for Social Work and worked in that field in Cincinnati; lifelong interest in history and genealogy.

5128 Yes! You Can Become a Better Photographer

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (ADI)

This workshop is about you and your development toward becoming a better photographer. As in any visual art form, good photographs are created by what you see. It is by becoming aware that the images you see become the photographs you want. Photographers using inexpensive digital cameras can and do take good - even great - photographs. This is a basic working class with photography field assignments each week. We will learn from each other as we share each week's assignment results. CLASS LIMITED TO 12.

Moderator: Muriel Foster is an award-winning photographer whose fine art photographs are in both corporate and private collections. Her exhibition experience includes major regional, national and one-woman shows. She is a published author and photographer. Muriel was a featured artist in the David Macaulay exhibit co-sponsored by the Cincinnati Art Museum and the Fitton Center for Creative Arts. Muriel has a studio where she teaches private classes at The Loveland Artist Studios on Main.

5131 Intermediate Knitting

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (ADI)

This course is a continuation of the Fall course. The first class will be a skills review and planning session for the quarter. Please bring needles and yarn to review Knit, Purl, Cast-on and Bind-off.

Moderator: Pat Thomas is a retired college professor and long-time knitter.

5213 Basic Math Review

Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

Take this class if you want to discover practical ways to use math in everyday situations. In this class, we will learn basic math concepts such as presented on the GED (General Educational Development for Math) test. Each class will review the previous week's topic and learn a new math subject. Material will be provided to work on in class and finish at home.

Moderator: Ron Rieman graduated from Xavier University with a BS, BA and MEd. His educational career included coaching, teaching and administration in secondary schools for 39 years. He has been a Principal, Dean of Students and Academics and a Business Manager/Treasurer in the educational field.

5221 You Can Change How You Feel

Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

While anger, fear, and hurt are very normal feelings, sometimes we have too much of them for our own good. These sessions will introduce you to the Albert Ellis, PhD method to change feelings. "Rational Emotive Therapy" is a self-help skill that you can learn to manage stress or change negative self-talk.

Moderator: Mike Shryock is a licensed professional clinical counselor with many years of experience using R.E.T. He is also a facilitator for SMART RECOVERY, which is a program using R.E.T. for people with addiction.

5245 On the Road: Where Hogs Fly

Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

Are you curious about the earth-changing value shifts in America after the 1950's or how an American parent tries to improve relations with a son? Do you want to know of the many animal and mechanical hog species from Porkopolis west? If so, hop on a mythical chopper-hog and hit the road with us. How did the beatnik generation react to American "greed"? How did a father use "Chautauquas" of history, comedy, tragedy, psychology, philosophy and value inquiry? Pack two classics, Jack Kerouac's "On the Road" and Robert Pirsig's "Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance." For the first class, read Part I of Kerouac's book. CLASS LIMITED TO 25.

Moderator: Dean Moore - Precollege and college educator, three degrees from Ohio University and University of Cincinnati

5246 Shakespeare Alive! Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

Discover the joy of reading Shakespeare aloud in a relaxed, informal atmosphere. We will cover "Macbeth" and "The Taming of the Shrew" during the eight-week session. Class members will read the different parts and participate in a lively discussion (non-lecture format). No memorizing or acting experience required - just a love of Shakespeare. Bring a copy of the play to the first week.

Co-Moderators: Heather Arden is a retired UC professor and medievalist. She has taught early and modern French drama and has enjoyed a life-long enthusiasm for Shakespeare's plays. Sally Moore is a graduate of the London School of Economics, retired Director of Research Services, Convergys, Inc. and an admirer of Shakespeare's genius and relevance to today.

5247 What in the World isGoing On in Foreign Policy?

Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (ADI)

The course is an updating of past offerings to help participants become more informed about what's happening in their world through the Foreign Policy Association's Great Decisions program offered again through the World Affairs Council of Greater Cincinnati. The topics for 2012 are Middle East Realignment, Promoting Democracy, Mexico, Cybersecurity, Exit from Afghanistan and Iraq, State of the Seas, Indonesia and Energy Geopolitics. Class features discussion facilitator along with DVDs featuring additional expert commentary on the topics discussed.

Moderator: Dr. Emil Dansker, a long-time member of the World Affairs Council and moderator for OLLI as well as a veteran practitioner and teacher of journalism.

5321 Discussion of Controversial Issues

Tuesdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (ADI)

The topics will be selected by the class, and Mr. Levy will enter the discussion on the side that seems to have the least support. This should be a lot of fun. He will be using the Great Courses lectures. The first class will be led by Jim Miller and will be devoted to a Great Courses lecture and discussion.

Moderator: Edward Levy describes himself as a professional has-been. To name just a few examples; CEO, athlete, and he is a lay member of the institutional review board at UC Medical School. The board's function is to review proposals for medical research. As a lay member, he represents the research subjects and deals with ethical issues.

5338 History's Turning Points II

Tuesdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (ADI)

Curious about important changes of direction in history? Seek some of history's essentials by using basic historian questions on proposed critical events, source documents, cause and effect connections, major personalities and debatable proposed lessons to be gained from critical events. Each week we'll discuss and view video selections, as available, of 4-5 events. Join us for this second of three courses (same book in the spring). Gain access to this book online ($5-18 used) titled "When, Where, Why and How It Happened," Reader's Digest Books, 1993. For the first class read about the turning points from the years 1610-1649. CLASS LIMITED TO 25.

6105 For the Love of Music

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (TUC)

"Listening to great music has always affected my entire being. This course will continue to share the wonder of great music and how it enriches our lives. There will be different composers and some of my performing colleagues to add to the mix," says Dick Waller. The counterpoint between the co-moderators: gentle, retired CSO principal clarinetist (1960 -1994) Dick Waller, and the guru of things musical and operatic, Charles Parsons, sparks interest, love and loyalty.

Co-moderators: Dick Waller, Artistic Director, Linton Chamber Music Series, 1976-2009; and Charles Parsons, retired librarian, UC College of Law; author; lecturer, UC CCM; Honorary PhD, Lampeter, Wales.

6147 The Shorter Fictions of Herman Melville

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (TUC)

For me, the dark and probing themes of one of the greatest of America's writers, Melville, seemed to derive from the ragged struggle of his own psyche and personal life. We will read and discuss as many of his stories as possible during the term. The book we will use is the Barnes and Noble Classics edition titled "Billy Budd and the Piazza Tales," $7.95. Please read "Bartle by the Scrivener" for the first class. CLASS LIMITED TO 15.

Moderator: Robert Shanklin, still working insurance broker, Miami University graduate in history and political science. More importantly, a life-long passion for literature and a growing enthusiasm for moderating OLLI classes.

6148 Lifelines for a Drowning Portfolio in a Stormy Economy

Thursdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (TUC)

This course will focus on creative ways to increase the wind in your portfolio sails and get more mileage out of your retirement assets. We will discuss keys to unlocking social security, how to protect assets to weather the storm, and strategies to position your portfolio in an unstable economic environment. Guest speakers with backgrounds in managing turbulent markets will give an in-depth point of view on revitalizing portfolios, managing volatility and steps to navigate changing times while sustaining your lifestyle and independence for/in retirement.

Moderator: Darin M. Schmidt is founder and president of Schmidt Wealth Management bringing 14 years of experience and knowledge from the financial services industry. Previously a Senior Auditor with Deloitte & Touche and Staff Auditor with Ernst & Young.

6202 French Conversation

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (TUC)

An opportunity to improve your speaking skills and brush up on the structural components of one of the most beautiful languages of the world by applying them in a systematic conversational format. Some basic knowledge of French is required.

Moderator: Gloria Giannestras attended only French speaking schools until college. She holds a Bachelor of Arts from The College of William and Mary in French and Spanish.

6215 Behind the Scenes in the Arts

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (TUC)

Back by popular demand, we invite arts leaders from many disciplines, dance, opera, symphony or visual arts, to discuss, enlighten and debate. Janelle will talk about behind the scenes changes in the newspaper industry.

Moderator: Janelle Gelfand has written for the Cincinnati Enquirer since 1991 and has been their classical music critic since 1993. BA, Music, Stanford; Masters, PhD, CCM. CCM Instructor, music history for three years. Articles, reviews in local and national music publications.

6228 Ideas in Philosophy: Plato's "Republic"

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (TUC)

Plato's "Republic" is the best known book in philosophy ever written. It is one of the most easily readable books in the field and is the source of most of western philosophical thought. It begins with an investigation into the meaning of "justice," proceeds to develop Plato's concept of an ideal state, finally gets back to justice and ends with Plato's alternative vision of what happens after death. Class format: As little lecturing and as much discussion as possible. Photocopies of the text will be distributed in weekly installments, with the hope that class members will read them between class sessions.

Moderator: Rollin Workman, retired UC Professor of Philosophy.

6233 More Flannery:

Short Stories of Flannery O'Connor

NEW

Thursdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (TUC)

A third offering to work with the short stories of this gifted Irish Catholic writer who was born and raised in the deep south bible belt. Her writing is consistently luminous, and she maintains a fierce contrariness. The book we will use is "Flannery O'Connor: The Complete Stories" (Farrer, Strauss, & Giroux), available new and used. Please read "A Good Man is Hard to Find" for the first class. CLASS LIMITED TO 15.

Moderator: Robert Shanklin, still working insurance broker, Miami University graduate in history and political science. More importantly, a life-long passion for literature and a growing enthusiasm for moderating OLLI classes.

6324 Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky Architecture XV

UPDATED

Tuesdays, 1-2:25 p.m. (TUC)

In this series of slide-lectures, using historic and contemporary views to examine the rich architectural heritage of Cincinnati and its vicinity, we continue to explore late 19th and early 20th century developments in what we call "The Gilded Age" or "American Renaissance." In the 1890's, monumental Beaux-Arts Classicism and the more domestic American Georgian or Colonial Revival evolved. Cincinnati "Old Master" architects McLaughlin and the Hannafords produced distinguished late works, and young firms like Elzner & Anderson and Garber & Woodward introduced exciting new stylistic approaches and technological innovations, including "skyscrapers."

Moderator: Walter E. Langsam, a Yale-trained architectural historian, has taught at UC for 25 years and gives frequent popular lectures and tours. He wrote "Great Houses of the Queen City" (1997) and contributed to "Architecture in Cincinnati" (2006). His "Biographical Dictionary of Cincinnati Architects, 1788-1940," is available at the Architectural Foundation of Cincinnati's site, www.architecturecincy.org.

6326 Let's Talk Current Events

UPDATED

Tuesdays, 1-2:25 p.m. (TUC)

This course is intended to deal with the political, economic and social events of the day.

Co-Moderators: Len Harding is a semi-retired, but not at all retiring person who has not had a traditional career and is not locked into any particular view of anything. He has been, by turns, an adjunct instructor of history; a technical writer; an architectural specifications writer; and a LEED

(green construction) contract administrator in Las Vegas. David Kempton, AB in History and Government from Ohio University, Masters Degree in Education from the University of Cincinnati. Worked for the Hamilton County Board of Developmental Disability Services for 35 years where his primary job was to assist students with developmental disabilities transition from school to work.

6327 What's New in Genealogy Today?

UPDATED

Tuesdays, 1-2:25 p.m. (TUC)

Something old, something new, something borrowed and something more fascinating than a mystery novel because it involves YOU and YOUR family. New sources for information are almost endless. WARNING! Your search may be addictive. Moderator is an experienced genealogist dedicated to helping the novice or the experienced researcher.

Moderator: Karen Everett, BS, education, magna cum laude, UC; post grad, Mount St. Joseph, Xavier, UC, Miami; thirty years district librarian; Education Director Hamilton County Chapter of Ohio Genealogical Society; member, First Families of Hamilton County, Ohio; recipient, DAR Service Award and Hamilton County Genealogical Society Distinguished Service Award.

6404 Opera: Up Close and Personal

UPDATED

Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (TUC)

This quarter we will take an in-depth look at Saison Russe; Rimsky-Korsakov: The Golden Cockerel; Borodin: Prince Igor; Rims: The Legend of the Invisible City of Kietzsh and the Maiden Fevronia. NOTE: This course is a repeat from 9-10:25 a.m.

Moderator: Charles Parsons, Retired Librarian, UC College of Law; author; lecturer, UC CCM; honorary PhD, Lampeter, Wales.

6446 Backyard Astronomy I

NEW

Tuesdays, 10:35 a.m.-Noon (TUC)

In this course we will take a look at "observational astronomy," that is, informal study of the objects in the night sky that are visible to the unaided eye or with binoculars and how they change through various cycles. Targets will include the sun (OK, that's a daytime object), moon, five of the planets, constellations and a few deep sky objects. As an aid to study, we will be using (and learning to use) the FREE "planetarium" software program called "Stellarium" which can be downloaded from the Internet and will run on most any computer or portable device.

Moderator: Prof. Hamilton is a mathematician by training and has taught various courses in mathematics, computer science, physics, astronomy and anything else that he has been able to convince someone that he knows something about. He currently serves as Senior Research Scientist for the Midwest Florida Manatee Research Project. Most notably, he has worked in the past at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory and glows in the dark.

6447 Move Into Ease

Tuesdays, ONE HOUR CLASS, 10:35-11:35 a.m. (TUC)

A little yoga, a little warm-up, some relaxation and soulful stretching. This 1 hour class will oil your joints and breathe ease into your bones, like giving yourself a massage. Wear comfortable, loose clothing and bring a mat or towel on which to lie. Expect to feel rejuvenated.

Moderator: Karen Zaugg brings a lifetime of dance training, yoga and a variety of bodywork to welcome you to exercise and wellness.

6504 Opera: Up Close and Personal

Tuesdays, 9-10:25 a.m. (TUC)

This quarter we will take an in-depth look at Saison Russe; Rimsky-Korsakov: The Golden Cockerel; Borodin: Prince Igor; Rims: The Legend of the Invisible City of Kietszh and the Maiden Fevronia. NOTE: This course repeats 10:35 - Noon.

Moderator: Charles Parsons, Retired Librarian, UC College of Law; author; lecturer, UC CCM; honorary PhD, Lampeter, Wales.

7021 Ballroom Dancing

Wednesdays, ONE HOUR CLASS, 2:30-3:30 p.m. (DTD)

It's never too late to learn to dance. In this 8-week course, you'll learn the basics of the waltz, foxtrot, cha-cha, swing and rumba. And, you'll have fun no matter what your level of dance experience is. Classes will be taught by top-rated, professional instructors in the beautiful studios at Dare to Dance. Don't miss this special dance experience. Studio is located at 11256 Cornell Park Drive #500, (off Cornell Road, opposite Skyline and just east of junction with Kenwood Rd.) Plenty of parking. Studio telephone (513) 407-8633.

Moderator: Marco Mechelke was a professional dancer involved in international competitions, performing, judging and even appearing in the movie, "Dance With Me." Since retiring, he has been teaching and coaching, and recently opened the Dare to Dance studio in Blue Ash.

7701 National Underground Railroad Freedom Center Tour

Friday, 1-3 p.m. (National Underground Railroad Freedom Center)

1 DAY COURSE on March 2.

A tour of our National Underground Railroad Freedom Center will be offered. While visiting the permanent and temporary exhibits in the museum, we will discuss the introduction of African slaves to our shores as far back as 1619. Our discussions will take us through the history of our state and country to the present time including how Ohio played an important part in the railroad system. Admission will be $10 and parking $4. Freedom Center parking is available in the Central Riverfront Parking Garage. The garage can be accessed off Main Street (the entrance is directly across the street from the Reds Hall of Fame) and also from two locations on Mehring Way, which roughly parallels the Ohio River immediately south of the Freedom Center. There is also a third entrance, on Second Street, underneath Great American Ball Park.

Moderator: Betty Ann Wolf, BA, Vassar College; docent at the Freedom Center since its opening.

8130 Introduction to the Enneagram Personality System

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on January 18.

The Enneagram is a powerful and dynamic personality system that describes nine distinctly different patterns of thinking, feeling and acting. As you discover your personality type and the underlying basic proposition, it can become a key to understanding the patterns in your life and offer signposts of the direction that your life might take. You will enjoy learning about yourself and your companions during this brief introduction.

Moderator: Tom Flautt, Retired from P&G Human Resources Department.

8131 Meet Patrick Henry: Champion of Liberty

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on January 25.

Virginia Governor, Patrick Henry, seldom travels into the savage wilderness of the Ohio country. He will leave his law practice and his governmental duties in Virginia to have a one day conference here in Losantiville. All loyal Ohioans who would like to hear news of the Revolutionary activity of the 18th century are invited to attend this rare audience with the governor. He will be available to tell about his own experiences and war news or to answer questions that may be of interest to attending patriots from Ohio or elsewhere.

Moderator: Saul Marmer.

8132 Some WOWs of Human Genetics II

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on February 1.

Research in human genetics continues to produce an increasing myriad of applications to the human condition. This session will explore some recent ones, particularly one this past spring where workers at the Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin decided to sequence the entire DNA of a six year old boy in hopes of finding an answer to the mysterious illness that was slowly killing him. This shows how genetic research is continuing to move toward personalized medicine. Some additional case studies, increasing uses of DNA in forensics and maybe even one or two jokes (old and new) will also be presented. Hopefully, the audience will also once again participate by using the Personal Response System clickers.

Moderator: Carl A. Huether, Professor Emeritus of Biology - University of Cincinnati.

8133 Downsizing Can Be Scary

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on February 8.

Learn to love the smaller version of your home in this session and embrace the challenge of rethinking your space. We’ll talk about how to edit down all the furniture and accessories you have acquired, how to mix old with new and ways to make small spaces look and feel roomy. We’ll debunk a few myths about living and decorating in small spaces and touch on using color to expand space and influence the “mood” of your home. We’ll even include some hands-on exercises to expand our thinking about small space design!

Moderator: Ramona LaChapelle is a full-time Master Interior Redesigner with Agricola Redesign in Glendale, OH. With more than six years experience in interior redesign and home staging, she is passionate about helping people achieve the “home they love in the home they have.”

8134 It’s Good to be the Queen!

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on February 15.

The queens of ancient Egypt served many roles. These “Daughters of Isis” were expected to act as their husbands’ representatives and were often called on to rule in their own right in the absence of a suitable king. Hatshepsut, Tawosret, Trey, Nefertiti, Nefetari and the incomparable Cleopatra all left enduring marks on Egyptian history. Seductress, gifted schemer, Cleopatra VII was a dazzling intellectual, skilled linguist and devoted mother. She controlled great wealth and a strong military, remarkable for a woman in any period of history. She enthralled and partnered two of the most powerful men of her time. “Well behaved women rarely make history.” Cleopatra proved that point!

Moderator: Pat Cordes.

8135 Rebuilding Lives: Stories of Hope and Courage

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on February 22.

Hear women share their inspiring stories of hope, recovery and second chances. Local women from Cincinnati Union Bethel’s Off the Streets program and the First Step Home program will share how they’ve overcome homelessness, abuse and addiction to rebuild their lives. Today, these women are reconnected with their families, returning to school and work and have a safe place to call home. They’re living testament that change is possible.

Co-Moderators: Lisha Lungelow, Off the Streets and Margo Spence, First Step Home.

8136 America’s Dirty Little Secret - Elder Financial Abuse

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on February 29.

Have you heard the saying “Hey Mister, Can You Spare a Dime?” Regardless of a person’s intent to share his/her wealth, it is estimated that one of every seven people age 60 and older will be financially exploited this year. Unfortunately, adult children are often the ones taking (financial) advantage of their parents. Due to fear, shame and humiliation most victims silently accept the unacceptable. This session shares stories, strategies and safeguarding tips everyone should know. As many older people have unfortunately discovered, life can change on a dime. Become informed so you don't become a statistic.

Class descriptions by CLASS NUMBER

Co-Moderators: Charles Puchta and Dr. Evelyn Fitzwater from UC Center for Aging with Dignity.

8137 Getting the Best Bang for Your Buck

Wednesday, 9 a.m.-Noon (SSC)

1 DAY COURSE on March 7.

Two money-saving presentations to stretch your dollar! The first presentation will be from the Better Business Bureau. They will explain who they are and what they can do for you. They'll provide tips to help you protect yourself against scams and fraud including how to complain effectively. The second presentation will be on couponing. Savings of 20 or 30% on your grocery bill are easily accomplished through couponing. Cindy Ewing will share her secrets of a "Couponista Lifestyle."

Co-Moderators: Leslie Kish is VP Operations, Better Business Bureau, and Cindy Ewing is a domestic savings specialist.

8138 Extra Treat:

Symphony Rehearsal and Lunch

Friday, 9:45 a.m.-2 p.m. (Music Hall)

1 DAY COURSE on March 9.

Maestro Nicola Luisotti will conduct Bach's Chaconne from Partita No. 2. Rozsa's Sinfonia concertante for Violin, Cello and Orchestra is the perfect showcase for two of the CSO's own artists: Concertmaster Timothy Lees on violin and principal cellist Ilya Finkelshteyn, who will perform this Hungarian-themed music. The gifted Maestro Luisotti will close the concert with Brahms' Third, music filled with conflicts - sighs of resignation and melodic highs and lows - all resolved in its final serene chords. At lunch, we will enjoy a talk by one of the symphony members. To order a box lunch, send a check for $9.00 made out to Beverly Maisenhalter, 4303 Allison St. Apt 6, Cincinnati, OH 45212. On the check memo area indicate your sandwich choice: Turkey; Ham Beef and Swiss Combo; or Vegetarian. You may bring your own brown bag lunch. Everyone attending the rehearsal must pay a $2 room rental fee upon arrival in the morning. (Enter the building from Elm Street through the double doors on the lower left front side of Music Hall.) No checks or cash for lunches will be accepted at Music Hall - Beverly Maisenhalter must receive all lunch checks by February 23, 2012. CLASS LIMITED TO 65.

Coordinator: Beverly Maisenhalter.

8538 450 Million Years of Landscape Evolution

Tuesday, January 17, 12:30-1:50 p.m. (UCBA)

Recent events, such as the Japan tsunami, have shown us that geology is a dynamic and ongoing force that impacts our planet. This region has seen its own series of geological events that have shaped our landscape over the last 450 million years. This class, moderated by the Curator of Invertebrate Paleontology at the Cincinnati Museum Center, will discuss these events and how they are relevant to our lives today.

Moderator: Dr. Brenda Hunda.

This tongue-in-cheek interactive talk is fun, provocative and yet offers pearls of wisdom for navigating the rocky road of marriage, made more rocky by couples not understanding some specific gender differences in language.

Moderator: Dr. Karen Gail Lewis.

Calling all volunteers

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UC is primarily a volunteer organization. While there's a small paid staff, members do a great deal of the work—everything from addressing envelopes to evaluating curriculum to producing this catalog.

Here are some of the committees that keep OLLI afloat: office volunteers, in class volunteers, membership, curriculum, marketing, special events and Wednesday WOWs.

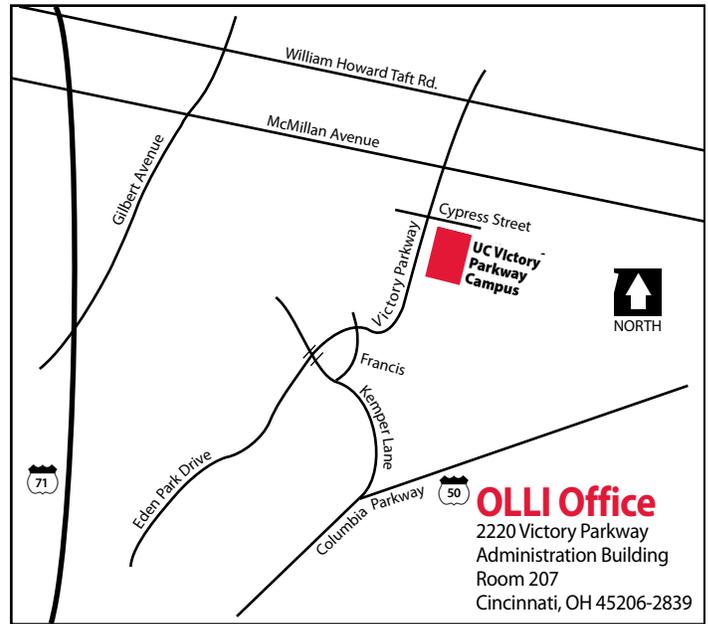

Please call the office (513-556-9186) and join the corps of OLLI volunteers. Working together for OLLI is both fun and fulfilling.

Speakers Bureau

DO YOU WANT TO
HELP US SPREAD
THE JOY OF LEARNING?

We welcome the opportunity to speak to your church, club or professional organization about OLLI. We will provide a 15 minute presentation on OLLI and bring brochures and catalogs to share.

What makes OLLI Great? You do!

Friends of OLLI at UC

*Helping to make your
"great experience"
even greater*

It would be hard to find a more enthusiastic and energized group of people than the members of our Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Cincinnati. Volunteers abound. Participation is contagious as we rediscover the joy of learning.

Your classmates who are members of Friends of OLLI at UC strongly agree. Their contributions make a major difference in your program's success.

Of course, your gift to Friends is an important factor in enhancing the educational experience for everyone. For example, your Friends contributions pay for:

- Parking on Main Campus for members and moderators
- Audio/visual equipment
- Scholarships
- Support of luncheons, social gatherings, and special events
- Other expenses that tuition cannot cover

Your generous support guarantees that OLLI will continue to offer a superb quality program at bargain prices.

OLLI is your "college in retirement." It is important in your continued growth and enjoyment of life. Please put OLLI high on your charitable giving list. Make your gift today. Your classmates are counting on you.
