MODERATORS WANTED!

Looking for a rewarding volunteer opportunity to share what you know with others?

Have a particular area of expertise, a skill, or an interest that you would enjoy sharing with an eager group of adult learners aged 50 and up?

Teaching for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Cincinnati may be just the thing for you!

WHO?
OLLI is looking for new moderators of
- Multi-week courses (up to 8 weeks)
- One-time programs such as o OLLI Samplers/Brown Bag Lunches (1.25 hours)
  o Wednesday WOWs and FAB Fridays (2.5 hours)

WHAT?
The OLLI Curriculum Committee accepts course proposals in a variety of subject areas such as
- Art & Art History
- Gardening & Landscape
- Photography
- Computers & Technology
- History & Social Science
- Science, Math & Psychology
- Current Events, Law & Politics
- Hobbies, Sports & Other
- Self-Improvement
- Exercise, Health & Wellness
- Literature & Drama
- Stage & Screen
- Financial & Retirement Planning
- Music
- Travel
- Foreign Languages
- Philosophy & Religion
- Writing

HOW?
- Visit the OLLI website and click on “Teach for OLLI”: www.uc.edu/ce/olli
- Email the Chair of the OLLI Curriculum Committee: curriculamutocolli@gmail.com
- Call the OLLI office at (513) 556-9186

SUPPORT?
- The Striving for Excellence Team runs regular orientation sessions for moderators.
- There are a number of important website documents offering support on o Guidelines for Moderators
  o How to write a course proposal
  o The course proposal submission process

SUGGESTIONS?
- If you know of someone who might be interested in teaching for OLLI, please pass on this flier.
- If you have contact information that you would like to leave with us, please use the back of this form to provide the name, email, phone number, and potential course subject matter of the person you are recommending.