Rediscover the Joy of Learning

A Message from Karen Zaugg, Chair of the OLLI Board of Trustees

So much for the conventional wisdom that people —especially older people—resist change. I know a few people in that demographic (and I do look in the mirror), so I can report with confidence that the OLLI membership, hopping on one foot and then the other to keep up with recent rocky shifts, handles change pretty well. Our move to the UC Victory Parkway Campus (VPC), while we also remain at Adath Israel, is a brilliant example of how change can bring improvement. I believe you will join me in embracing the amenities, parking convenience, and designation of an OLLI home base at VPC. It is particularly gratifying that our move entails a joint effort with the University of Cincinnati, our host institution, solidifying our connection and demonstrating UC's commitment to OLLI.

You can find more information about OLLI's new home at VPC here: <http://www.uc.edu/ce/olli/front-page-stories/home.html>.

Spring Quarter Information

- Spring Quarter dates: April 4–May 27. No classes at Adath Israel April. 28.
- Save your OLLI lanyard and nametag and bring them with you to the first day of classes. You will receive a sticker at that time to indicate your registration in spring quarter. All others may pick up a new lanyard and nametag at any OLLI location during the first week of classes. This will go faster if you bring along a copy of your registration confirmation.
- Classroom assignments are handed out in the lobby of each venue during the first week of classes and posted thereafter.

Ideas for a Great Spring OLLI Schedule

Haven't registered yet for Spring? Here are just a few ideas for building a diverse OLLI schedule.

- Try the one-time courses. All the OLLI Samplers and Wednesday WOWs at Adath Israel, Brown Bag Lunches at Tangeman University Center, and FAB Fridays at Llanfair Retirement Community are open. No matter what your interest, you'll find it somewhere among the subjects offered.
- Come to main campus. Parking is easy and nearby—and OLLI picks up the bill. All classes are offered on the same floor of the same building, so you won't get lost going from one class to another. Plus, the same building has restaurants and a food court, so you'll be all set to enjoy a Brown Bag Lunch program. To see the offerings at Tangeman University Center, look at the courses in your catalog that begin with the number 4.
- These interesting courses at Adath Israel (and many, many others!) still have places available: 2842 Ohio Authors, 2916 History and Development of the Automobile, 3022 A Look behind the Scenes of Opera, 3202 Discussion of Controversial Issues, 3239 Causes of WWII and the Cold War, 3349 Religion beyond Dogma, 3432 Hero's/Heroine's Journey:

Antony and Cleopatra, 3515 Life Happens! Planning for Major Life Changes, 3638 Spanish Conversations, 3712 Kitchen Gardening, 3827 The Economics of Investing, and 3923 Victoria's Garden: Pretty Maids All in a Row.

Creative Voices Update

Because of the flurry of activity at OLLI around the move to Victory Parkway Campus, we've put the production of Creative Voices on hold for a few weeks. The plan is to make selections and begin production early this summer with publication in the fall. This also means it is not too late to submit your creative writing or artwork for consideration. Find the details here: <http://www.uc.edu/ce/olli/creative-voices.html>.
