Rediscover the Joy of Learning

A Message from Karen Zaugg, Chair of the OLLI Board of Trustees

There's been news recently about the 8–9 hours per day “young” people spend interacting with electronic screens. And we hear about the electronically captured youth of our society being unable to interact in person, eye-to-eye, speaking in full sentences. Perhaps you have exclaimed in dismay when seeing a group, all heads bent down, working intently on individual devices. Thank goodness for OLLI: we can get one foot in the electronic pool and glory in the joys of actual human interaction. Of course, there are OLLI classes to learn about electronics and digital photography, but perhaps more importantly OLLI offers face-to-face conversation, exploration adventures, and social events. Join OLLI humans for interaction and learning even through the depth of winter... and beyond the screens.

OLLI Holiday Luncheon

Don't lose touch with your OLLI friends during winter break! Join us for the annual Holiday Luncheon, where we'll introduce the winners of the Aaron Levine Award for long and extraordinary service to OLLI, honor our course moderators, enjoy a delicious luncheon, and meet friends old and new.

Monday, Dec. 7, 11:30am–1:30pm
Manor House Banquet & Conference Center
7440 Mason-Montgomery Rd., Mason
RESERVATIONS REQUIRED by Nov. 29!

If you've misplaced your invitation or it went astray in the mail, you can find it here:
<http://www.uc.edu/ce/olli.html>.

Special Crèche Display

Back in the late summer when you registered for OLLI, it may have seemed too early to sign up for the Crèche Display and Lunch (#8601) that takes place Sat., Dec. 19, 10am–1:15pm at Knox Presbyterian Church. Or maybe you'd like to stop in to see the display but can't stay for lunch. This exhibition of more than 200 crèches from around the world is from the collection of longtime OLLI member Nancy Moorman. For the buffet luncheon and display, go online or call the office to register for #8601. There is a $10 fee to cover your lunch. For the display only at no charge, register for #8602. If you would like to bring a non-OLLI friend, please call the office and let us know so we can add their name to the list.

Teach for OLLI in the Spring

Storm chaser? Mah jongg maven? Math whiz? Culture vulture? History detective? Science guy or gal? Green thumb? Globe trekker? Deep thinker? News hound? Don't wait for an engraved invitation! OLLI needs you all!

On Nov. 30, we will begin taking proposals for spring 2016 OLLI classes—both eight-week courses and one-time programs. It's easy to get more info and submit a simple online form at <http://www.uc.edu/ce/olli.html>. Just click on Teach for OLLI in the menu on the left side of the page. You'll find the dates for the quarter, information about being a moderator, and simple forms to submit for multi-week and one-time courses.

Join Your OLLI Friends at Columbus Winterfair

We have one place on the bus (and nobody on the wait list in case anyone has to cancel) for the Extra Treat #8530 Bus Trip to Columbus Winterfair: Fine Art and Craft Fair on Friday, Dec. 4, 9am–4:30pm ($35). To find out more, register yourself, or place yourself on the wait list, go online to <https://webapps2.uc.edu/cmrs/olli/> or call the office at 513-556-9186.

Lives Remembered: Sally Peterson

By Jerri Roberts

We have lost a staunch supporter of OLLI and a dear friend of many of us with the passing of Sally Peterson in October after a long battle with cancer. Even when she was ill, she still attended and taught OLLI courses.

We met in Keith Marriott's Life in Medieval England course, finding ourselves down front and next to each other. From that first class, we became fast friends. Eventually, I convinced her to become vice-chair of the OLLI Marketing Committee, which she later chaired. She also headed the Speakers Bureau, doing most of the presentations herself, as well as representing OLLI at senior fairs and to the media. Sally was an OLLI Board member, moderator, and editor of Creative Voices magazine.

She was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, world traveler, painter, writer, teacher, theatre lover, Rockdale Temple choir member, and Cincinnati Art Museum docent. She tried anything that interested her, including zip lining! Sally was a Renaissance woman. She lived life to the fullest: every day was a new experience, filled with wonder and adventure.

Lives Remembered: Jane Garvin

Longtime OLLI moderator Jane Garvin passed away this month. UC Associate Professor of Nutrition, Emerita, and licensed dietitian, she co-moderated with Dr. Richard Bozian an OLLI course on nutrition and health, which OLLI member Warren Dedich remembers well: "Both were well versed in diet and nutritional health and their impact on heart disease, cancer, diabetes, etc. Jane often shared articles on this topic, kept pace with changing nutritional guidelines, and answered questions I had even after the class had ended. Her classes were well attended due to her knowledge and ability to explain things on a level understandable to her students."

Her co-moderator Dr. Bozian offered this remembrance: "I am truly saddened at the death of my longtime colleague Jane Garvin. We collaborated over a 45-year period teaching undergraduate, graduate, and medical students, residents, and physicians on matters relating to the nutritional sciences, medical problems, and wellness. We offered OLLI programs for a quarter of a century together. She will be sorely missed in our community."

Creative Voices Submissions

All 2015–16 school year OLLI members, moderators, and volunteers are invited to share their creative talents by submitting material to be considered for publication in OLLI's annual Creative Voices magazine to be published this spring and debuted at the OLLI Spring Luncheon on June 1, 2015.

The jury will accept electronic submissions of short fiction and nonfiction (2,000-word limit), poetry, artwork in any media, and photography. Each person is limited to no more than five submissions total across all media/art forms. (If you must submit a hard copy for some reason, please call 513-556-9174 for instructions.)

Send your submissions by January 31 via email to olli@uc.edu, subject line: Creative Voices. You will be notified in March if your work has been accepted for publication. Detailed instructions as well as the electronic version of the current year's Creative Voices are online at <http://www.uc.edu/ce/olli/creative-voices.html>.

Like OLLI on Facebook

We are counting down to reach 700 “likes” on the OLLI at University of Cincinnati Facebook page—with only a few to go! When we get to 700, we’ll put all the names in a bowl and drew one to win a free quarter membership. Let’s do it before winter quarter! Why? Lots of OLLI breaking news shows up first on Facebook. And we share photographs from classes and special events, pertinent news stories, and tips for retirees. Join our online social network at <https://www.facebook.com/OLLIatUniversityCincinnati>.
