THE MACE

The mace carried by the university marshal is the gift of Sigma Sigma. From the fourteenth century, the ceremonial mace was used by civil and ecclesiastical authorities. Today, carried as an emblem of authority and prestige, it is commonly used to indicate the official opening of ceremonies.

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI SEAL

On September 26, 1904, upon the suggestion of Dr. Charles W. Dabney, President of the University, the Board of Directors adopted the insignia of the city of Cincinnati as the official University seal. The scales, sword and Mercury’s wand on a shield, along with the motto Juncta, Juvant are mounted on a pointed ellipse surrounded by a belt bearing the words “University of Cincinnati” and the date 1819. Juncta, Juvant literally means “Things joined are a help” (translated freely, “Strength in Unity”). In the space between the shield and the belt is a wreath of oak leaves. Below the shield is a scroll with the motto Alta Petiti (translated freely, “She seeks the heights”).
ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic costumes are as old as the universities themselves, recalling a time when all students in centers of higher learning were members of the clergy, and wore garments which were considered proper by the Church.

American universities, unlike those of England and Europe, have adopted a standard code of academic costume. The Oxford-type cap or mortarboard is always black and may be made of any material except velvet, which is reserved for doctors. The tassel worn with the cap has three variations: black for any degree; the color of the faculty in which the degree was granted; or made of gold metallic thread, reserved for doctors and governing officials of institutions.

Each person who receives a degree wears the gown appropriate to the degree granted. The bachelor's gown is closed at the throat and has long pointed sleeves; the master's gown has oblong sleeves, open at the wrist, tapering at the back in a square cut, which ends in an arc cutaway. The doctor's gown is an elaborate one, marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck as well as by three bars of the same material on the bell shaped sleeves. It is cut much fuller than the other gowns, and unlike them, may be ornamented in color. Both the paneling and sleeve bars may show the faculty in which the degree was awarded.

The hood alone clearly shows the level of the degree, the faculty in which it was given, and the institution which awarded it. The level of the degree is shown by the size of the hood, the width of the velvet trimming, and in the case of the doctor, by the shape. The bachelor's, master's and doctor's hoods are three feet, three and one-half feet, and four feet long respectively; although bachelor's seldom wear hoods anymore. The velvet trimming in the same order is two, three and five inches, extending around the hood on the exposed edge. For each faculty there is a corresponding color, so a glance at the trimming is all that is needed to identify the faculty. The institution which awarded the degree is indicated by the colored lining.

Members of the governing body of a college or university, whatever their degrees may be, are entitled to wear the gown warranted by their degree or a doctor's gown. The doctor's gown is trimmed in black velvet or the color representative of their degree, but their hoods may be only those degrees actually held by the wearer or those especially prescribed for them by the institution.

December 2014

Dear UC Graduates:

On this landmark day, your UC Alumni Association offers our hearty congratulations as you join more than 270,000 living UC alumni throughout the world. It’s a wonderfully diverse group of Bearcats-for-life who have achieved success at the highest levels and brought honor to their university. And with your arrival today, it becomes bigger, better and more connected than ever.

Starting now, you’ll begin to look at your alma mater differently. Students tend to see UC as “where I go to school,” whereas alumni are more likely to think of UC as “my school — a part of me forever.” It’s a subtle yet powerful difference in how we feel about and interact with our university. You’ll see a new sense of ownership and pride. All of us become more united through our common experiences and passions. And we want to get involved and do our part.

As a UC student, everything you’ve done and everyone you’ve met has changed and prepared you for the future. You’re ready to do big things — to build on your tremendous UC education and personal experience. And don’t put college “behind you.” Coming here was a “life decision,” and staying engaged with UC is a lifelong endeavor with unending rewards.

So remain connected with your college, the organizations you have belonged to, your friends, and especially your UC Alumni Association. We have a vibrant Young Professionals group in Cincinnati, and 30+ alumni networks across the U.S. if life takes you elsewhere. No matter where you go or what you do, I encourage you to embrace the various ways you can connect with and support your university — however it makes sense for you.

Again, congratulations from your fellow Bearcats. We’re thrilled to welcome you to the UC Alumni Family!

Sincerely,

Jennifer L. Heisey ’97
Executive Director
UC Alumni Association
