Faculty member suspects student of academic misconduct (plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aiding & abetting, etc.)

Faculty member emails their CCA to see if student has prior violations

Within 10 days of incident, faculty member fills out Notification Form and sends to student

Student Responds to Notification within 5 Days

Student disputes responsibility or sanctions

Student and faculty member schedule meeting with 5 days

Faculty member decides to dismiss allegations

Resolution Form Sent (go up to "Resolution Form Sent" for process from here)

Cased closed

Faculty member does not agree to dismiss allegations

Resolution Form Sent (to CCA)

Cased closed

Student accepts responsibility and sanction

Faculty member provides copy of form to CCA

Cased closed

Student does not respond

Resolution Form Sent

Sanctions final

Student accepts responsibility and sanctions

Faculty provides copy of Resolution Form to CCA

Cased closed

Student accepts responsibility but disputes sanctions

Sent to College Hearing Panel (CHP)

CHP decides responsibility and sanctions

Dean concurs, modifies, or rejects

Case closed

CHP decides responsibility and sanctions

Dean concurs, modifies, or rejects

Case closed

Student denies responsibility

Sent to College Hearing Panel (CHP)

CHP decides responsibility and sanctions

Dean concurs, modifies, or rejects

Case closed

Sanctions final

Case closed

Student Does Not Respond to Notification Form within 5 Days

Resolution Form Sent

Student does not respond

Sanctions final

Case closed

Student accepts responsibility and sanctions

Faculty provides copy of Resolution Form to CCA

Cased closed

Student accepts responsibility but disputes sanctions

Sent to College Hearing Panel (CHP)

CHP decides responsibility and sanctions

Dean concurs, modifies, or rejects

Case closed

Student denies responsibility

Sent to College Hearing Panel (CHP)

CHP decides responsibility and sanctions

Dean concurs, modifies, or rejects

Case closed