10th Annual Equity & Inclusion Conference

April 4, 2018

Call for Poster Proposals

The 2018 Equity & Inclusion Conference will include poster presentations designed to showcase ongoing research in the area of diversity, equity, and inclusion conducted by University of Cincinnati students. Selected posters will be printed and displayed throughout the conference with special conference sessions designed to showcase student research.

This is an excellent opportunity to highlight your work and seek guidance from peers, content experts, and research professionals!
