INCLUSIVE EXCELLENCE WORKSHOP
TITLE IX WORKSHOP
NOVEMBER 15, 10-11:30, 415 TUC
PRESENTER: ASHELY MCWHORTER & MORGAN SHAW

Join presenters as they highlight nine aspects of Title IX that will help participants in their respective roles to create and maintain a respectful work, living and learning environment at the University of Cincinnati. This presentation will enlighten attendees about the civil rights law, Title IX, as well as the many resources available within and outside the community. Presenters will demonstrate the ways in which Title IX Office serves as a strategic partner to promote gender equity and inclusion. The interactive components of this workshop are designed to enhance understanding of individual's roles in preventing and responding to harassment and discrimination.

Ashely F. McWhorter's career in higher education includes two years as Resident Advisor and three years in the area of Financial Aid. Most recently, she served as the Title IX Coordinator and Coordinator of Academic Advising for a small private Catholic College. Ashely earned her Bachelor of Arts in Communication from the University of Cincinnati, her Master of Science in Higher Education from Kaplan University, and is presently pursuing her Doctorate of Education degree in the Leadership Studies program at Xavier University. Currently, Ashely serves as Program Coordinator in the Title IX Office at the University of Cincinnati. Her work focuses on promoting gender equity and inclusion across the UC campus community.

Morgan Shaw is a Program Coordinator within the Title IX Office at the University of Cincinnati. Morgan received her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and her Masters of Science in Health Promotion and Education from the University of Cincinnati. She takes pride in being a part of the University of Cincinnati community and enjoys the opportunity to serve as a Program Coordinator within the Title IX Office, promoting gender equity and inclusion within the Bearcat community.
