My co-worker remembers giving less than a year ago. Why doesn’t it count?
Any gift made to UC during the fiscal year running from July 1 to June 30 of the next calendar year counts for that fiscal year’s campaign. For example, a gift made in June 2015 counted for fiscal year 2015, but a gift made in July 2015 counts for the current 2016 campaign.

How will I know who is a current donor and whose involvement I still need to encourage?
The Foundation will provide you with a list of current donors and non-donors on a regular basis. At any time, you can contact Phillip James (phillip.james@uc.edu or 556-6295) for an updated list.
Employees automatically receive credit for their spouse’s gift to UC.

Why must gifts be made payable to the UC Foundation?
The UC Foundation is a 501(c)3 organization that accepts gifts for the purposes of advancing UC’s mission. Tax receipts will come from the Foundation, but gifts are distributed to the college, department or program fund that you select. In most cases, 100% of your gift is tax deductible.

What is the difference between the Faculty & Staff Campaign and United Way and ArtsWave campaigns?
Gifts made during the Faculty & Staff Campaign stay right here at UC and benefit our students and programs. While it’s important to invest in our community, it’s very important to invest in UC because it will inspire alumni, friends, corporations and foundations to support UC with their gifts.
