Look for the green tiles for all financial related tools and topics to help you organize, track and make the most of your finances. Some tools include budgeting, calculators, and estate planning.

Look for the orange tiles for all legal services available. A few services include identity theft, insurance, personal injury, child custody, and cars/tickets.

Look for the red tiles for health services for a healthier you. This includes how to get started, assessments, educational videos, and many more topics!

The purple tiles include topics on well-being, such as emotional and social/relationships. Visit these to enhance your sense of self and to find help for emotional health issues.

These bright blue tiles will provide information and resources for those who are suffering from depression. Also, look here for tips and resources on managing stress at home and in the workplace.

Look for these dark blue/grey boxes for tips on training for both personal growth, as well as professional growth. These tiles include effective communication, effective supervision, and more.

Impact now offers a newly enhanced website that is easier to navigate and provides a wide range of resources that will help you build resilience and manage life challenges.

Enhanced features:
- New design with easy to navigate centers
- Mobile friendly access
- Individual employee login option
- Over 20,000 resources
- More tools: assessments, videos, quizzes.
- Regularly updated content

Phone: 800-227-6007