Title: Sr. Health Physics Technician

Pay Scale Group: 97F

Essential Function

Under general supervision from a designated administrator perform complex health physics duties (both routine and non-routine) associated with Radiation Safety Office.

Characteristic Duties

- Perform all duties of the Staff Health Physics Technician 2.
- Coordinate the radioactive waste management operations including, but not limited to: scheduling pickups; picking up waste from laboratories; processing, packaging, and disposing of waste in accordance with department procedures; maintaining records; and ensuring related surveys are performed as required.
- Inspect and prepare radioactive materials for shipment or disposal.
- Calibrate survey equipment and assist in the maintenance of other radiation safety equipment.
- Check sealed radioactive sources for leakage; inventory sealed sources.
- Instruct radiation safety personnel and others as necessary on radiation safety policies and practices.
- Perform related duties based on departmental need.

Minimum Qualifications

- Associate’s degree in Physical or Biological Science and three (3) years related experience; OR High school diploma and five (5) years related experience. Must successfully complete a departmentally administered examination. Must have acceptable driving record and able to obtain a valid HAZMAT Commercial Driver’s License within three (3) months of employment.

Unusual Working Conditions

- Must be able to demonstrate ability to bend, reach, pull, push and lift up to 40 pounds without mechanical assistance.