Title: Plasterer Journeyman

Essential Function

Under supervision from higher-level supervisor, perform work requiring master plasterer; supervise and direct other skilled plasterers.

Characteristic Duties

• Perform highly skilled plastering work. Prepare surfaces according to work to be completed; apply and finish plaster for patch work or new construction to interior or exterior surfaces; utilizes specialized tools and materials required for completion of plastering project; may inspect buildings and equipment for safety; maintain job related equipment.

• Perform miscellaneous duties: repair ceramic tile walls and floors; minor brick, block cement work; truck driving; rig scaffolding; place drop cloths on working areas; move furniture and furnishings as necessary to perform tasks.

• Plan, direct and inspect jobs; does layouts, interpret blueprints, establish work priorities; estimate staff hours, equipment and material needed, including costs; requisition materials, keep inventory and records.

• May be required to: supervise semi-skilled and skilled plasterers and related trades people; assist supervisors in allocating work assignments, reviewing and evaluating work performance, and in training new personnel; coordinate work with other trades.

• May assist in monitoring and coordinating work with contractors.

• Assist other trades workers (i.e., plumbers, carpenters, painters, etc.) in the performance of routine maintenance, renovation and construction projects.

• Maintain housekeeping conditions prescribed by area.

• Perform other related duties as assigned.

Unusual Working Conditions

• May be exposed to dust, dirt, fumes, noise and heights.

Minimum Qualifications

• Must have an approved certificate from an accredited related apprenticeship program; five years directly related work experience; high school/GED; some supervisory experience is necessary. Must have a valid Ohio driver’s license with acceptable driving record.

Last updated: December 1990