Title: Graduate Assistant

Definition

A student work assignment which provides support for an apprenticeship period, during which the student enhances his/her scholarly and professional skills.

Characteristic Duties

- Perform various duties related to specific scholarly and professional skills.

Minimum Qualifications

- Must be registered for at least twelve graduate credit hours each quarter of the academic year.
- Eligibility criteria published by graduate programs that make awards and appointments.