Title: Industrial Hygienist 1

Essential Function

Under general supervision from a designated administrator, perform field measurements of environmental stresses regarding chemical, physical, biological, and ergonomic factors that may impair the health and/or safety of students, faculty, patients, or staff of the University.

Characteristic Duties

- Perform air monitoring, noise monitoring, bulk sampling of hazardous materials and unknowns and submit samples to an appropriate laboratory for analysis.

- Compliance with Health and Safety regulations. Ensure that all functions of the University have knowledge of the University safety rules and city, state, and federal regulations pertaining to health and safety.

- Conduct basic and routine inspections to receive and investigate complaints.

- Maintain effective relationship within the University system and keep abreast of trends in the Industrial Health and Safety field.

- Conduct safety and training programs.

- Perform related duties based on departmental need.

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree with one (1) year experience; -OR- Associate's degree with three (3) years experience; -OR- five (5) years experience; Degree must be in Industrial Hygiene, Physical Science or Chemistry. Experience must be in environmental health or related field. Some positions may require Ohio State Certification in all asbestos areas. Some positions may require a commercial driver's license (CDL). If a CDL is required, the employee must have an acceptable driving record.