Title: Nurse Clinician

Essential Function

Under general supervision from a designated administrator, provide and promote quality nursing care in area of specialty.

Characteristic Duties

- Develop, recommend and implement programs of care specific to particular groups of patients.
- Provide specialized nursing services to patients.
- Consult with other health team members related to area of specialty.
- Confer with physicians, administrators, and staff to coordinate care programs.
- Identify educational needs of staff.
- Participate in research activities.
- Assign work; ensure proper workflow of the unit; act as lead worker.
- Perform related duties based on departmental need.

Minimum Qualifications

- Current/valid RN license to practice in the state of Ohio. BSN or equivalent combination of nursing education and experience. Two (2) years nursing experience. Research position may require at least one (1) year of research nursing.

Last updated: September 1999