Title: Occupational Health Nurse

Essential Function

Under general supervision from a designated administrator, perform physical examinations and necessary lab procedures of patients for the Occupational Health Clinic and to aid physician(s) in clinical diagnosis of occupational injuries.

Characteristic Duties

- Perform physical examinations, laboratory tests, and comprehensive medical histories in clinic areas and industrial sites in accordance with standards set by the clinic.

- Ensure any abnormalities are brought to the attention of the physician.

- Assist in performance of health hazard evaluations for government and industry.

- Participate in teaching residents, medical students and nursing students in the area of Occupational Health.

- Provide skilled nursing care to individuals and groups who are exposed to hazards and/or toxic substances.

- Consult with physician to make assessments of possible environmental hazard.

- Coordinate on-site visits with accompanying physician.

- May provide direct supervision to exempt and non-exempt staff (i.e., hiring/firing, performance evaluations, disciplinary action, approve time off, etc.).

- Perform related duties based on departmental need.

Working Conditions

- N/A

Minimum Qualifications

- Current/valid RN license to practice in the state of Ohio. BSN or equivalent combination of education and experience. At least two (2) years nursing experience in Occupational Health Nursing.

Last updated: September 2011