Title: Occupational Therapist (Research)

Pay Scale Group: 14

Essential Function

Under general supervision from the study principal investigator, organize and implement in collaboration with study coordinator, occupational therapy programs to facilitate adaptation to physical, emotional or development disabilities, as outlined in the study protocol.

Characteristic Duties

- In collaboration with study coordinator, implement appropriate therapeutic treatment program for subject/patient, according to the study plan.

- Conduct direct occupational therapy (e.g., electrical stimulation modalities) to help subject overcome or adapt to physical, emotional or developmental disabilities.

- Provide instruction to subject/patient and/or caregiver on the proper use of various methods and techniques.

- Manage weekly follow-up visits with subject(s) to interrogate stimulator, assess compliance with treatment schedule, and make recommendations.

- Assist with data management, maintaining appropriate documentation and completing all necessary forms.

- Perform related duties based on departmental need.

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor’s degree or equivalent in Occupational Therapy from an accredited program is required. Certification by the American Occupational Therapy Association and licensure by the State of Ohio are required. Experience must include at least one (1) years in assessment and treatment.