Would you like to serve the aging population of Ohio, expand your professional and personal network and earn a little money while getting academic credit?

Students can take this course as a for-credit or not-for-credit opportunity

Register Today for SLCE3000

Call # 504609

The Driving Community Connections course is designed for students wanting to expand their personal and professional networks while serving the aging population of Ohio. Students use their own vehicles to provide transportation to help seniors remain independent in their own homes for as long as quality of life permits and helping visually impaired adults to go beyond bus routes.