Welcome and Administrative Matters – Judge John West, Chairman
- Judge West welcomed everyone to a special meeting of the CAC that combined a community forum breakfast with a regular CAC meeting.
- Approximately 85 community members, elected officials, civic leaders, University officials, and police officers were in attendance – breakfast was served.
- Judge West presented Doloris Learmonth with a letter from UC President, Neville Pinto and a token of appreciation for her service on the CAC.
  - Ms. Learmonth will be stepping off of the CAC at the end of 2017. She noted that it was an honor and pleasure to serve on the CAC, and valued the work of the group.

Safety & Reform Update – Vice President Robin Engel and Director S. Gregory Baker
- Dr. Engel and Director Baker thanked everyone for attending and added a special thank you to the CAC members, explaining that members attend monthly meetings and work on various sub-committees to guide UCPD’s reform efforts.
- Dr. Engel commended UCPD officers for being open to changes, and noted they have been receptive to new policies, procedures, and training.
  - All changes are based on the six core principles, and will be the central work of the police department moving forward.
  - Reform effort is guided by evidence-based principles and best practices.
  - Dr. Engel and Director Baker gave a presentation documenting these changes, and noted to work that remains. A copy of the presentation can be found at: Safety and Reform Update
Dr. Engel, Director Baker, and members of the CAC addressed questions from the audience.

Exiger Semi-Annual report to the Community – Jeff Schlanger, Denise Lewis
- Exiger team introduced themselves and discussed their experience in external monitorship.
- Mr. Schlanger delivered a presentation that documented UCPD’s progress to date. This presentation can be found at: External Monitor Presentation

Future Meetings
- Tuesday, December 12, 2017 from 5:00 – 7:00 PM in 620 University Pavilion.
