General Fee
- Typically, the general fee increases at the same rate tuition does
- This year, the general fee did not increase because it would have been over compensated for in the tuition increase
- The general fee does not have its own separate fund

New Hires
- The University has a new Title IX coordinator
- A chief of police has been named (Jason Goodrich)

- Discussion on areas funded by General Fee - see last meeting notes for more information
- Nippert Stadium is not being funded by the general fee or tuition; it is funded solely through private donation
- Many of the organizations’ budgets include salaries
- A more detailed budget is to come

SSB (Student Safety Board)
- Advisor is now out of public safety
- Run by student government
- 7,000 magnets have been given out in residence halls
- Key chains and other marketing materials have been given out to promote Be Smart Be Safe

NightRide
-How to make recommendations
-Highest utilization ever
-Possible development of an app
