SALD Student Leadership Workshops

Workshop Content: All workshops can be adjusted to meet your group’s needs. On the following link, please provide any information that may help us tailor the workshop for your group or organization.

Building Your Leadership Brand – “When it comes to leadership, the common denominator is YOU- make sure you not only like what you see but that you believe in what you see!”

Dialogue Skills for Effective Communication - When difficult conversations occur, are you able to engage others with respect and civility? Do you enjoy having controversial conversations, but often walk away feeling frustrated? This interactive workshop teaches the skill and technique of dialogue.

Event and Volunteer Management – Are you planning a large-scale event? This session will provide you with tools to aid in the planning of the event. Also, we will touch on how to recruit, retain, and manage volunteers in your organization.

Leadership and Ethics - How do ethics relate to leadership? How important is it to be an ethical leader? Join this session to learn how to be an ethical leader.

Managing Conflict as Leaders – Are you managing different personalities within your organization or within groups in your classwork. This session will help provide tools and resources for you to use when faced with potential conflict situations.

Motivating Your Team – This session will provide you with tools on how to not only motivate, but also provide feedback and recognition to your team!

Planning a Retreat - This session will provide you will different techniques of how to energize, motivate, and connect the members of your organization.

*Strengths Based Workshops:

Intro to Strengths - Understanding how your talents influence how you approach work in and out of the classroom.

Strengths Round 2 - After students participate in Intro to Strengths, Round 2 provides the space for discussion and interactive activities to discover how strengths influence how we lead and manage others in the workplace and within our organizations.

*These sessions utilize StrengthQuest/StrengthsFinder education and require participants to take a StrengthsFinder test to discover their Strengths. The first group(s) of students signing up for a session (up to 75 students), receive the test for FREE. Following the first 75 students, there is a cost of $10.

Time Management – Are you having a hard time saying no? This session will discuss ways to manage your time so you can be a better student and leader in your organization and life.

True Colors – Not able to take part in the strengths based session, but still interested in exploring your leadership style. Learn more about your leadership style through True Colors® personality inventory.

Values Into Action - What does it mean to be an authentic leader and how do you become one? We will explore your personal values and how you apply them to your everyday life.
