Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ’s)

What is Think About It?

Think About It is an online prevention program designed to help you understand the risks associated with alcohol and other drugs as well as consent, sexual assault, and intimate partner violence. The program will introduce you to facts and statistics around use of alcohol and other drugs and sexual assault.

Who should complete the course?

All incoming students at UC’s Clifton campus, UC Clermont College, and UC Blue Ash (part-time and full-time) are expected to complete the course. This includes transfer students, graduate students, professional students, and distance learning students.

What is the timeline for completing Think About It?

For incoming students, newly enrolled in fall 2015 semester:

Think About It: Part One and Think About it :Graduate Students opened on July 6, 2015 and should have been completed by September 4, 2015.

For incoming students, newly enrolled in the spring 2016 semester:

Think About It: Part One and Think About it :Graduate Students will open on November 30, 2015 and should be completed by January 18, 2016.

Why am I being asked to complete this course?

Sex and gender-based discrimination, harassment, and violence are real issues on every college campus. As a new member of our community, we are committed to giving you the tools you need to have healthy, consensual relationships and to make positive choices about drug and alcohol use and how to be an engaged member of the UC community.

Who will see my responses?

No one will see your individual responses. The University of Cincinnati will be able to see the collective data of the student body, but not the specific responses from individuals. This helps us make sure our programs are a good fit for our incoming students. Though all your responses will be de-identified, you do not have to disclose any personal information about yourself. For questions that ask you for personal information, you will have the option to select “Not Specified” to opt out.

Will I receive any college credit for Think About It?

No. Think About It is an informational course designed to help you better understand difficult topics such as drug abuse and sexual violence. The program will introduce you to an ongoing conversation throughout your experience at UC, but it does not fulfill any academic requirements.

TRIGGER WARNING: This content deals with situations of sexual assault, sexual violence and gender-based violence and may be triggering to some people. If you need support, please contact resources below.

For national, state, and on-campus resources: www.uc.edu/titleix/resources
National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-799-7233
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ’s)

Why do I have to wait 90 days to complete Part 2 of the course?
The goal for Part 1 is to give students information about reducing risky behaviors before coming to college. The 90 day period allows students to apply information learned in Part 1 to make healthy choices for themselves and assist their friends. At the end of the 90 day period, students are then assessed to see how they have applied the information while at the University of Cincinnati.

How long will it take to complete the course?
Most individuals will be able to complete the program in 1.5 to 2 hours. The version for graduate and professional students should take 1 hour to finish. Remember that you may log in and out of the course; you do not have to complete the entire course in one sitting. Part 2 of the course, which you will complete 90 days after completing Part 1, only takes 15-20 minutes. You will receive an email when it is time for you to complete Part 2.

Where do I go to complete Think About It?
You should receive an email invitation directly from CampusClarity to your UC student email. Log in instructions can also be found at www.uc.edu/titleix/thinkaboutit.

What internet browsers are compatible with Think About It?
Currently, the course is compatible with all major internet browsers. In addition, you can also complete Think About It on your tablet.

What if I am uncomfortable with the course’s content?
We understand that topics like sexual violence can be very personal for a lot of people. Please contact the Title IX Office at UC, and we will provide you with appropriate resources and work with you to find a reasonable alternative to Think About It.

Who do I need to contact if I am having technical difficulties with Think About It?
Technical support can be reached by calling 1-800-652-9546 or emailing admin@campusclarity.com.

Who should I contact from the University of Cincinnati if I have questions about the program?
If you are having technical difficulties, please follow the instructions above. If you have campus-related questions about the program, please send them to thinkaboutit@uc.edu or visit www.uc.edu/titleix/thinkaboutit for more information.

TRIGGER WARNING: This content deals with situations of sexual assault, sexual violence and gender-based violence and may be triggering to some people. If you need support, please contact resources below.

For national, state, and on-campus resources: www.uc.edu/titleix/resources
National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-799-7233