The graduate school: minimum academic performance (graduate faculty).

All graduate departments must publish in writing in accessible format the minimum academic standards for each graduate program offered including:

(A) Minimum grade point average if it is higher than the university minimum of 3.0.
(B) Acceptable grade distribution including grades earned in a required course.
(C) Nature and number of programmatic examination, such as preliminary, qualifying, and the consequences of not passing all or part of each examination.
(D) Specified research requirements.
(E) A time-related definition of normal progress for all full- and part-time students. The progress of each student must be reviewed annually.
(F) Standards and procedures for annual review of academic performance.
(G) Standards and procedures for probation, suspension and dismissal.
