Meet Our Members!

Community Shares’ member organizations identify and address pressing concerns in Greater Cincinnati. They also empower those in need by providing a continuum of support. Healthcare provision, job training, environmental advocacy, civil rights protection, and education are just some of the services our organizations offer in order to tackle systemic problems facing our region.

We invite you to learn more about Community Shares’ member organizations via our website and contact info for each organization which can be browsed as an alphabetical listing or by the services they provide.

Community Shares is a partnership of local nonprofit organizations dedicated to addressing difficult issues facing our community. We connect caring donors with organizations that positively change lives, and distribute donations based on choices indicated by donors. Every dollar contributed is a vote for social and economic equity and a healthy environment.

Your contributions reflect your priorities and passion. You have complete flexibility in choosing the organizations you support.
