

the DOUBLE-TAKE DIME

10 things making us look twice

1

Welcome to Campus!

Gregory H. Williams will take over as the 27th President for UC on November 1st. President Williams formerly served as president of The City College of New York. He is celebrated for his work in the field of diversity. Welcome to campus President Williams!

Intl. Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women

At least one in every 3 women, globally, has been abused in some way. With that sobering fact in mind, November 25th was set up by activists to bring awareness to the need to end violence against women.

2

REDTRANS

REDTRANS is part of a regional organization that works to promote respect, security and dignity for transvestite, transsexual and transgender people and to combat gender and sexual-identity discrimination directed at their communities. Silvia Martinez will be on campus speaking on the topic November 12!

Look at me....

3

NWSA Conference

The annual National Women's Studies Association Conference will be held November 12-15 in Atlanta, GA. The focus will be on "Difficult Dialogues" within the feminist community. Our very own Jess Price will be presenting!

5

Click on the underlined items for more info about the topics!

4

6

Hate Crimes Bill Passes the Senate

On October 22, 2009, the Senate passed legislation making it a federal crime to assault someone based on his or her sexual orientation and or gender identity. President Obama is supportive and has pledged to sign the bill.

The Shriver Report

Maria Shriver in conjunction with the Center for American Progress has compiled a comprehensive report on the implications of women making up half of the workforce. As the report says, "A woman's nation changes everything." Read up to see how...

8

Trans Day of Remembrance

Transgender Day or Remembrance will be held November 20th to honor the memory of trans people who have been murdered and to bring awareness to hate crimes against the trans community.

African American Women's Experiences on the Big Screen

Good Hair, a film by comedian Chris Rock takes a look at the highly charged topic of African American women's hair; while Lee Daniels brings Sapphire's PUSH to screen as Precious. Both films are sure to garner discussion and possibly, in the case of Daniels' work, a nod from the Oscars.

10

7

Election Day

It's time to make your voice heard again. Check out your local races at the Board of Elections. Get out and vote!

9

November is Native American Heritage Month

November serves as a time to reflect on the significant contributions Native Americans have made to the foundations of American and to celebrate and honor the traditions of Native Americans. Quiz yourself by clicking above!