Food Services

uc.edu/food

513-556-6461 | ucfood@uc.edu

Delivering a wide variety of quality, nutritious meals is the highest priority for UC Food Services. Each of the dining centers on campus offers vegan, gluten-free and allergy-sensitive options, alongside popular comfort food favorites. Carryout available at select locations.

Dining on campus is also about the experience and sense of community. Students can enjoy themed meal events, weekly meet-the-Chef with featured recipes, and also have access to a campus dietitian. Dining centers are a gathering place for friends, between classes or for a late-night study break. With an All-Access Meal Plan, we take care of the food so you can focus on studying!

Parking Services

uc.edu/parking

513-556-2283 | parking@uc.edu

All students, including freshmen, are able to have a car on campus. Students must purchase a permit at the beginning of each semester to park in garages and surface lots. Fall 2022 permit sales start on July 1.

Campus Recreation

uc.edu/campusrec

513-556-0604 | campusrec@uc.edu

Campus Recreation offers a wide variety of activities to help students reach academic success through physical and mental wellbeing. Campus Rec is all about helping students be active and healthy on campus. Students can build their community by participating in intramural sports, hanging out at the climbing wall, taking a free group fitness class, going for a dip in the leisure pool, or swimming in our Olympic-sized lap pool.

uc.edu/tuc

513-556-2831 | mainstreet@uc.edu

TUC, UC's Student Center, is located in the heart of campus, offering the university community a vast variety of dining options, shopping and meeting spaces. The newest addition is a locker center for residential mail and package pick-up. Home to the iconic clock tower that plays UC's Alma Mater twice daily, TUC features places to: Eat – Bearcat's Cafe dining center; Chick-fil-A, Panda Express, Qdoba, and Cincy Grill Shop – UC Bookstores, ExpressMart, Bearcat Card/MainStreet Connection Center, PNC Bank Study – On-Demand rooms for studying Meet – Vast number of spaces for meetings and events uc.edu/eventservices

University Housing

uc.edu/housing

513-556-6461 | uchousing@uc.edu

If you've chosen to live in university housing, you have many advantages: easier to get to class, meet new people and get involved. Plus, Resident Advisors support the transition to college. With ongoing and upcoming housing development, more room options will become available for students, such as Siddall Hall reopening in fall 2024; the new southeast development at Calhoun and Scioto; and the Bellevue Gardens redevelopment opening in 2026. Combined, they will bring nearly 2,000 more beds offered by University Housing.

Printing Services

uc.edu/printing

513-556-5043 | printing@uc.edu

Quick, cost effective printing can be essential for student success. Whether it's resumes for a career fair, a lab project, a big poster for a presentation, stickers for your event, or just something for you, Printing has you covered. Stop by our on-campus locations or submit a print from your phone or laptop. Check our website for current hours by location.
