7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20
CCM Orchestra and Choral Series
A SEA SYMPHONY
CCM Philharmonia, CCM Chamber Choir, CCM Chorale
Joe Miller, conductor
Featuring TBA student soloists
Ralph Vaughan Williams' A Sea Symphony gives voice to the majesty and mystery of the ocean, bringing musical life to sea poems from Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass. A Sea Symphony is celebrated for its ambitious scope, masterful integration of choral and orchestral forces, and its deep emotional and philosophical impact. It stands as a testament to Vaughan Williams' creativity and his ability to capture the grandeur of the natural world through music. Presented with colorful lighting by CCM Lighting Design and Technology students.
BRITTEN: Four Sea Interludes from Peter Grimes
VAUGHAN WILLIAMS: A Sea Symphony
Estimated run time: 1 hour and 45 minutes
Location: Corbett Auditorium
Admission: $19.50 adult, $15 student, $15 UC faculty/staff, $10 UC student, $5 CCM student; group discounts available.

Tonight's concert is presented with support from Elizabeth Ann Leman Muennich MD, PhD, in memory of John Leman; Jan Rogers; and Willard and Jean Mulford Charitable Fund of the Cambridge Charitable Foundation.

Flash photography, video and audio recording of performances is prohibited without prior written approval from CCM.
