

Articulation Agreement

Associate of Arts in History at UC Clermont College to
Bachelor of Arts in History at Northern Kentucky University

General Information

Purpose

This Agreement establishes a partnership between Northern Kentucky University and UC Clermont College for the purpose of providing students well-defined and fully integrated pathways from initial postsecondary enrollment to an associate degree from UC Clermont to a baccalaureate degree from Northern Kentucky University.

NKU Degrees/Programs Covered in this Agreement

All academic progression plans in this Agreement apply only to students who successfully complete all requirements and are awarded an Associate of Arts in History degree at UC Clermont College, and thus satisfy all General Education requirements at Northern Kentucky University. Students who do not complete the associate degree before transferring must satisfy General Education requirements at NKU on a course-by-course equivalency basis.

Degrees included in this Agreement are: History

Provisions for Review, Revision and Catalog of Record Designation

Both parties agree to review this Agreement on an annual basis on or about the release of their respective academic catalogs for the forthcoming academic year, and to make any necessary updates required by curricular changes.

To avoid disadvantaging students at UC Clermont College who have formally begun the four year progression outlined in this document, students enrolling at Northern Kentucky University with an earned associate degree from UC Clermont College will be permitted to designate their catalog of record up to two years before the year of NKU enrollment, if such designation is to their advantage.

Benefits for Students Provided by Northern Kentucky University

The College of Arts and Sciences and Northern Kentucky University will make the benefits listed below available to students of UC Clermont College who have formally declared their intent to earn the associate degree and subsequently pursue a baccalaureate degree in History at Northern Kentucky University.

- Access to online or on-campus advising from a College of Arts and Sciences professional advisor while enrolled at UC Clermont College before entering NKU.
- Guidance from History faculty and advisors in selection of major and related career opportunities while enrolled at UC Clermont College before entering NKU.

Benefits for Students Provided by UC Clermont College

- Guidance from UC Clermont College faculty and advisors regarding course selection, professional development, career opportunities and transfer expectations.
- Access to scholarships while enroll at UC Clermont College (Award of scholarships is competitive and cannot be guaranteed).

Additional Partnership Commitments

All parties to this Agreement commit to the following in order to enhance the success of our students:

- Frequent communication at all levels.
- Collaboration in instructional rigor and content to insure that students are well-prepared for upper division coursework.

Cancellation and Expiration

This Agreement may be cancelled by the chief academic officer of either institution by providing written notice to the other at least one academic semester prior to the effective date of termination.

This Agreement will be considered continuous for five (5) years from the date of signing unless revision or cancellation is requested by either party. The Agreement will expire after five (5) years unless renewed by agreement of both parties.
