Foreign Policy with the American Foreign Service Association
An Exclusive Learning Adventure for Cincinnati OLLI Members
JUNE 11-16, 2017

At a Glance:
In case studies and expert-led discussions, examine the challenges facing U.S. diplomacy and the functions of embassies and consulates, and spend the week with ambassadors and foreign service officers and their spouses in a wonderfully informal and friendly, yet very educational atmosphere. The Chautauqua Institution offers this program with the American Foreign Service Association.

Highlights:
• Foreign Service experts share insights on key issues including peace in the Middle East and security in Europe.
• Examine global-stability obstacles posed by developing nations’ population growth, poverty and nuclear proliferation.
• Ambassadors and veteran Foreign Service officers discuss America’s professional diplomats, how they assist U.S. citizens and protect U.S. interests in the world.
