Program Overview:
Make your way to the islands in the western basin of Lake Erie to learn about their fascinating human and natural history. Narrated walks and on-site presentations teach you about the wildflowers, cliffs, snakes, grape harvests and bird and butterfly migrations that make the islands unique.

Program Highlights:
- On a boat trip to Kelleys Island, study geology at gigantic glacial grooves and fossil-filled quarries.
- A scientific voyage with staff from the Ohio State University’s Stone Laboratory introduces you to lake ecology.
- Learn about the Battle of Lake Erie as you stand in the shadow of the country’s third-tallest national monument, Perry’s Victory and International Peace Memorial, and visit other sites relevant to island history.

Activity Level: Keep the Pace – Walking up to one mile, some uneven terrain. Stairways to reach caves and the elevator platform for Perry’s Memorial. Ferry boat to South Bass, day trips by boat to outer islands.
