WELCOME FROM THE CHAIR

Dear Trustees and Colleagues,

The University of Cincinnati Foundation has charted a strategic course to be an exceptionally valuable resource for the University of Cincinnati and UC Health, among the most highly ranked and comprehensive institutions of higher education, medical research and patient care.

To provide essential support, the UC Foundation exists solely to advance the goals and mission of these most prestigious, world-class and growing institutions. The Foundation has a tightly focused mission: to assure the advancement of the university and UC Health through fund raising, financial management, and donor stewardship. In a time of decreasing government support, that mission has become increasingly important to the future relevance and strength of the university and UC Health.

This year marks the 40th anniversary of the founding and incorporation of the Foundation. We are grateful for the vision of the incorporators of the Foundation whose inspiration created a perpetual and significant philanthropic presence for the greater UC community.

In this brochure, you will find a brief summary of the foundation’s strategic plan, major responsibilities of the board, a brief description of standing committees, and some of the foundation’s historical highlights.

We will collaborate with each other and our many constituents to be trusted stewards of our assets and our strategic path forward. Thank you for accepting the call to lead and serve.

Sincerely,

Bob Fealy, Chair
University of Cincinnati
Foundation Board of Trustees

THE VISION, MISSION AND STRATEGIC PLAN

Vision Statement

To serve as a catalyst to inspire, unite and enlist the support of alumni, friends, colleagues, students, foundations and corporations in the mission of the University of Cincinnati community to transform the lives, health and well-being of the city, state, nation and global community.

Mission Statement

To support UC’s aspirations through philanthropy by collaborating with the colleges, Academic Health Center, UC Health and other units to maximize private support. Our advancement efforts promote the development of productive, enduring relationships with alumni, friends, colleagues, students, foundations and corporations.

Summary of Goals and Initiatives

The Foundation’s Strategic Plan presents a supportive and ambitious agenda for the future of the University of Cincinnati as it embarks on the journey toward “Creating the Third Century for UC.” It is consistent with the vision of the University community, and defines what is needed for UC to continuously attract, retain and graduate extraordinary students. It supports the enhancement of exceptional academic programs, teaching and research endeavors of talented faculty. Finally, it promotes excellence in all facets of University life. Achieving the goals in this Strategic Plan will require visionary, committed, dedicated and philanthropic leadership from the Foundation.
GOAL 1
Institute a More Focused Fundraising Effort

1. Focus on Donors with the greatest potential and center efforts on specific interests of donors as well as interests of college and units.

2. Develop an enhanced donor touch strategy that differentiates both quality of touch and significantly more identified prospects.

3. Build rewarding donor relationships that endure through personnel transition.

GOAL 2
Expand University-Wide Philanthropic Understanding & Participation

1. Develop curricula to educate faculty, staff, students and volunteers about the role of philanthropy and the avenues open to fostering and securing additional philanthropic resources from a variety of possible prospects.

2. Collaborate within and across colleges and programs to align the interests of potential donors with university initiatives, as well as college and program initiatives.

GOAL 3
Create and Foster Strong, Enduring and Productive Relationships

1. Expand the UC Foundation’s existing relationship with UC at all levels, especially within the leadership, academic, alumni and student ranks.

2. Make development a team approach, involving the entire university community.

3. Publicly position the foundation as UC’s preeminent volunteer organization and community “board of choice” to drive volunteer engagement.

4. Develop a student-centric stewardship plan to connect donors with students on a regular basis through events, communications and other vehicles.

5. Build and reinforce a sense of tradition within the student experience.

GOAL 4
Improve and Leverage Strategic Fundraising Communications & Engagement

1. Inform and inspire internal and external stakeholders through strategic and meaningful communications.

2. Listen to constituent perspectives and act as an important conduit of information regarding the University’s and Foundation’s achievements and challenges.

GOAL 5
Secure the Necessary Human and Fiscal Resources

1. Develop multi-year funding models that will ensure the resources necessary to fuel increased fundraising activity and results driven by UC2019, academic priorities and donor interests.
GENERAL INFORMATION

ROLE OF THE BOARD

As the governing body of the Foundation, the board is charged with the development and evaluation of the basic goals and broad policies, plans and programs of the Foundation. Some of the board’s major responsibilities are to:

- Approve (and periodically review) the foundation’s statement of mission and purposes.
- Promote strong and healthy relationships between the foundation, the UC community, and all constituents.
- Appoint and support the foundation chief executive (may also be a shared responsibility with the university).

- Ensure adequate resources through active fundraising, asset management, and advocacy programs.
- Protect and preserve the foundation’s legal standing.
- Protect donor rights and honor gift restrictions.
Much of the work of the board is accomplished through its standing committees which serve in an advisory role to the board. Committees are chaired by trustees, and a senior officer of the Foundation serves as the staff liaison. Members of the board are appointed to serve on these committees with representatives from faculty, staff and administrators of the Foundation and the University who are appointed by the Foundation President. HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1819
The University of Cincinnati acknowledges 1819 as the year of its founding. In that year, two components of the current university were incorporated: Cincinnati College and the Medical College of Ohio. Both of these educational initiatives, taken just 30 years after Cincinnati was founded by twenty-six settlers in 1788, were dependent upon the gifts of concerned citizens. Fund raising began even before students were enrolled.

1858
The early decades of higher education in frontier Cincinnati were filled with many resource crises. Then, upon his death in 1858, Charles McMicken bequeathed to the City of Cincinnati the bulk of his estate, approximately $900,000, to found an institution to educate boys and girls, which was to be located on his homestead on what is now McMicken Avenue. This endowment provided the necessary foundation for the future University of Cincinnati. “What the name John Harvard is to Harvard University, and Elihu Yale is to Yale University, the name of Charles McMicken is to the University of Cincinnati.”

1895-1905
Henry Hanna contributed $69,091.07 to build and equip Hanna Hall, the north wing of McMicken Hall. Briggs S. Cunningham gave $60,000 to build and equip the south wing, Cunningham Hall. Asa Van Wormer gave $50,000 to build Van Wormer Library, now the Administration Building. David Sinton provided $100,000 for the maintenance of the Academic Department.

1912-1915
Due to the long and significant career of Dr. Christian Holmes, to honor his memory, the Carnegie Corporation gave $250,000 for a chair, Mrs. Charles Fleischmann gave $100,000 to the Holmes Memorial Fund, and Mrs. Holmes contributed $250,000 to endow the Deanship of the College of Medicine and $200,000 to construct Holmes Hospital. Rockefeller Foundation contributed a $700,000 challenge grant for the Holmes endowment. Carnegie Foundation helped UC match the challenge with $200,000.

1916
Francis Howard Baldwin left the residue of his estate, approximately $700,000, for the benefit of the university. He made no restrictions on the gift and gave no indication of the purpose intended. The main building of the College of Engineering was named in his honor.

1923
James Norris Gamble gave $270,000 to complete the football stadium in memory of his grandson, James Gamble Nippert, who died on Christmas day as a result of a football injury sustained on the Thanksgiving Day game against Miami.
HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1929
The University of Cincinnati Boosters Committee for Athletics was appointed by Chase M. Davies, President of the Executive Alumni Council. It included 80 prominent business and civic leaders. This organization was the forerunner of UCATS (University of Cincinnati Athletic Team Scholarships), today’s athletics fund-raising organization. The Schmidlapp Chair of Aeronautics was funded in the College of Engineering and Commerce by Jacob G. Schmidlapp. $130,000 was given by “three industrial groups outside of Cincinnati” to build and equip the Charles Kettering Laboratory for Physiology.

1930
Mrs. Charles P. Taft established the $2 million Charles Phelps Taft Memorial Fund, in memory of her husband, to assist “the study and teaching of the humanities in the College of Liberal Arts and the Graduate School...”

1941
New Board member Jane D. Earley helped organize the Friends of The University to solicit funds each year to support UC. This was the start of UC’s annual giving program.

1946
Mrs. George Elliston bequeathed $250,000 to establish a chair in poetry in the College of Liberal Arts.

1947
The Alumni Association was granted permission to start an annual fund-raising campaign. Kelly Y. Siddell chaired the first effort which raised $50,000 from 2,200 alumni. Today over 26,000 alumni contribute each year to UC. The College of Medicine began its annual alumni appeal, the longest-running annual alumni appeal at UC.

1952
Mrs. Frederick Alms’ estate gift of $200,000 made possible the new Alms Memorial Building for the College of Applied Arts.

1954
The College of Pharmacy joined UC after completing a five-year campaign to raise a $625,000 endowment from local pharmaceutical companies and citizens. The endowment was a condition placed by UC on the merger between the university and the 103-year-old college.

1962
The College-Conservatory of Music became a part of UC after a major fund-raising effort. $1,264,000 was assigned to CCM by the Cincinnati Institute of Fine Arts from its endowment and $1 million was raised from private citizens.

1969
UC completed successfully its first university-wide capital fund campaign. The Sesquicentennial Campaign, led by Chairman William H. Zimmer, raised $34 million in private support.

1971
$1,250,000 was given by Rose Wolfson through the Erwin S. and Rose F. Wolfson Foundation to build the Erwin S. Wolfson Center for Environmental Design, a part of the College of Design, Architecture, Art and Planning.
1972
Dr. George Rieveschl, Jr., founded the Charles McMicken Society to encourage and recognize annual gifts to UC of $1000 or more. From the original 14 donor members, the society now recognizes over 2000 donors each year.

1975

2000
Since the foundation was formed, three other university-wide campaigns have been conducted. The Centers of Excellence Campaign (1980-1984) raised $53 million. The Continuum Campaign (1985-1987) raised $8 million. The “Campaign for The University of Cincinnati” ended successfully on June 30, 2000 with a total of $328.9 million committed.

2007
The University of Cincinnati approves a goal of $800 million for its capital campaign to be launched in 2008.

2008
The University of Cincinnati Board of Trustees approves the Proudly Cincinnati Capital Campaign Goal be increased to $1 billion.

2009
In June, The University of Cincinnati Foundation celebrated the “Halfway” point in the Proudly Cincinnati Campaign by exceeding $500,000,000 in donations.

2010
The University of Cincinnati achieved the largest enrollment in UC history with over 41,350 students on all campuses, for the autumn quarter.

2011
The University of Cincinnati Foundation reached the $755 million mark of the $1 billion Proudly Cincinnati Campaign, March 31.

2013
Proudly Cincinnati reached its end on June 30, 2013 with more than $1.09 billion raised in private support from 100,672 donors.

2014
The University of Cincinnati (UC) Foundation surpassed its fundraising goal of $125 million, raising in excess of $170 million in private support for the university.

2015
Integrated UC Health Foundation into UC Foundation. UC Cancer Institute landed three seven-figure gifts. UC Faculty Staff Campaign set new record by raising nearly $14 million to support UC’s people and programs.
