Bold Moves
Aronoff Center for the Arts
April 25-28
Music: Mozart, Carmon DeLeone, Ólafur Arnalds
Choreography: Jiří Kylián, Victoria Morgan, Ma Cong

In a delightful triple bill that will close the season, Bold Moves, April 25-28, at the Aronoff Center, proves that there is something in dance for everyone to enjoy. For the first time in the Company’s history, the Company will present internationally acclaimed Jiří Kylián’s Sechs Tänze, a whimsical take on the aristocratic era set to the music of Mozart. Completing the celebration of Carmon DeLeone’s 50th Season is the world premiere of Victoria Morgan’s Dancing to Oz, including an original score by Maestro DeLeone. Based on the classic Oz tale, with a ballet studio as the setting, our heroine follows a fabled path that ultimately reveals hidden strengths that inspire new hope and confidence in her. The third piece is Ma Cong’s Near Light, which expresses the power of perspective. It uses different movement and a rose to demonstrate a variety of emotions, which can inspire great change and progress. The music by Ólafur Arnalds creates a driving rhythm that seems to move the artists forward, from dark to light, cold to warm. The evolving relationship between the dancers show the adaptations caused by development and growth.
