Dear New Student,

Welcome to Bearcats Bound 2016, our way of making sure that you and your classmates at the University of Cincinnati set out on the best possible footing. All of us here at UC want you to experience success – something that is never a solo act and always takes assistance from others.

To help you start your journey toward Commencement, our orientation program and the pages of this book introduce you to the many resources we offer along the way. Arriving at college is much like moving to a new city – there are a lot of new people, places, programs and procedures to get to know. In fact, UC itself is much like a small city with over 44,000 students and 16,000 faculty and staff, with so many facets and so much to offer. Bearcats Bound is like having a tour guide to show you how to navigate your new college home.

As you begin your studies here, I also want to remind you that your entrance into the UC community represents a new phase in your journey. It is a chance to start over, to reassess your direction or pursue your lifelong goal with focused purpose. Whichever of these descriptions best fits you, I encourage you to participate in the full Bearcats Bound experience so that you can start your UC journey with greater understanding of how our university works and what we have to assist you. And save this book for future use!

See you at New Student Convocation in August!

Best wishes,

Santa J. Ono
President
Just Community Principles

Sharing a Commitment for a Just Community

The University of Cincinnati is a public comprehensive system of learning and research that serves a diverse student body with a broad range of interests and goals.

The faculty of the university produces world-renowned scholarship and nurtures innovation in and out of the classroom. As well, the faculty, staff and administration support an educational setting of excellence, opportunity and service.

In embracing our roles within this learning community, we subscribe to the defining values of respect, responsibility, and inclusiveness. I will promote the highest levels of personal and academic honesty and aspire continuously to better myself, the Bearcat community, and the world.”

As members of this community, we will

Accept Responsibility by striving to build a learning community committed to these common values and principles.

Celebrate the Uniqueness of Each Individual by respecting individual differences and promoting common interests.

Embrace Freedom and Openness by working to create an environment that is safe and affirming, one that nurtures independent thinking and the free and open expression of ideas.

Practice Civility by extending to those we meet the same respect, cooperation and caring that we expect from others.

Promote Justice by working to build a learning environment that offers everyone an equal opportunity to grow, flourish and contribute.

Pursue Learning and Scholarship by building on successes, learning from mistakes and pursuing quality in teaching, research and creative endeavors.

Seek Integrity by aspiring to the highest moral and ethical standards.

Strive for Excellence by aspiring to achieve our fullest potential in our educational and personal pursuits.

Bearcat Bond

“As a member of the University of Cincinnati, I will uphold the principles for a Just Community and the values of respect, responsibility, and inclusiveness. I will promote the highest levels of personal and academic honesty and aspire continuously to better myself, the Bearcat community, and the world.”

College of Allied Health Sciences (CAHS)
The College of Allied Health Sciences (CAHS) consists of the university’s “medical helping” professions programs. These on-campus undergraduate programs include: Advanced Medical Imaging Technology, Athletic Training, Medical Laboratory Science, Communication Sciences & Disorders, Dietetics, Food & Nutrition, Health Sciences, and Social Work. CAHS plays an increasingly important role in our modern health and education environment. With the aging of the baby boomer generation and individuals living longer, expectation for excellent health care services is at an all-time high. CAHS is involved in enhancing and improving the quality of life for people everywhere by discovering, teaching and applying knowledge of evidence-based practices. Graduates of CAHS are exceptionally prepared to contribute to health care and education from the first day they enter the job market, armed with the latest developments in their field and concrete experience with patients or clients in the community.

College of Design, Architecture, Art, & Planning (DAAP)
The University of Cincinnati’s College of Design, Architecture, Art, and Planning (DAAP) welcomes our new students and parents! With only 2,000 undergraduate students in ten majors, DAAP utilizes small class sizes, tight-knit relationships with faculty, technology, and hands-on projects to help students learn an incredible array of tools and techniques for their work. This classroom experience, coupled with an emphasis on professional practice, has cemented DAAP’s reputation as one of the best design schools on the planet. DAAP truly is an exciting and creative place to be. We are thrilled to bring a new group of students into the DAAP family and to witness their transformations into professional artists and designers.

McMicken College of Arts & Sciences A&S McMicken College of Arts and Sciences is committed to excellence, innovation, leadership, and service. Students and faculty work side-by-side to examine the complex, interconnected world we live in. McMicken students are aspiring researchers, scholars, and leaders in their field. They engage in learning activities both inside and outside the classroom, choosing among research, internships, study abroad, and service learning opportunities that align with career goals. Furthermore, the curriculum affords possibilities to combine majors, minors, and certificates to create infinite pathways to graduation that may be unique for every student. That’s what students mean when they say #MyMcMicken.

College of Medicine CoM The University of Cincinnati College of Medicine (COM), established in 1819, has a proud tradition of training outstanding future clinicians and leaders in biomedical research and academic medicine. The new undergraduate major in Medical Sciences is an innovative pathway within the College of Medicine that will provide students with integrated academic, experiential, and mentored opportunities to prepare them for advanced training in professional schools—medicine, pharmacy, dentistry—as well as master’s and doctoral programs in the life sciences. Through basic science, translational, or clinical research, clinical shadowing, and service opportunities, students participating in the Medical Sciences degree will have a competitive edge in advanced degree application. Welcome incoming students to a challenging, yet incredibly rewarding, Bachelor’s program in the College of Medicine!

College of Nursing CoN Founded in 1889, University of Cincinnati College of Nursing is home to one of the first baccalaureate degrees for nursing in the country. The College of Nursing currently educates over 2,700 students in bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral programs. Undergraduate students in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program complete one year of pre-requisite courses, followed by three years of nursing courses and clinicals. In addition to hands-on learning in our skills labs, simulation labs and clinical sites, students have the opportunity to complete an international clinical or participate in our co-op program during their senior year. The College of Nursing prides itself on being at the forefront of technology—we unveiled our first telehealth robot in 2012 and have implemented iPads into the curriculum. We’re not just educating tomorrow’s nurses—we’re educating tomorrow’s nursing leaders. UC Nurses. We See Leaders.
Career Development Center CDC

CDC welcomes freshmen to meet with a CDC Career Coach to ask career planning questions early on. If undecided, consider taking our Career Decision-Making course. Freshmen can use several career services to acquire essential employability skills, build a resume, practice interviewing, learn the art of networking, find part-time jobs and co-curricular internships and more! CDC programs for freshmen include Internship Month, CDC Ambassadors and the Part-time Job Fair. Freshmen needing HELP with choosing a major, should call 513-556-3471 for an appointment. Visit us at CDC on the 1st floor of University Pavilion and pick up a FREE Career Champions’ Playbook Student Guide.

Disability Services Office DSO

The Disability Services Office is dedicated to empowering students with disabilities through the delivery of support services. The office coordinates and facilitates reasonable academic accommodations and services for students with disabilities, while attending UC, to meet their individual needs as well as advocacy assistance on disability related issues, and education. To request accommodations and/or specialized services, contact the Disability Services Office.

Learning Assistance Center LAC

The Learning Assistance Center helps UC students become engaged and empowered learners through innovative programs and services designed to support student driven learning. From one-on-one services, such as the Academic Writing Center, Peer Tutoring, and Academic Coaching, to group programs, like Supplemental Instruction and the Math and Science Support Center, our Center offers students flexible supports to enhance their knowledge, motivation, and learning skills. All services are free to UC students.

Pre-Professional Advising Center

Thinking of attending law school, medical school, pharmacy school, PA school or another health professions school? Advisors in the Pre-Professional Advising Center (PPAC) collaborate with students starting in their freshman year, helping them explore their options, prepare an excellent portfolio and then apply to professional schools.

• First meeting: Attend an Introduction to Pre-Professional Advising workshop
• Second appointment and beyond: Meet with a PPAC advisor one-on-one every semester to plan and review your professional goals and dreams
• Professional schools look for academically strong and well-rounded students. PPAC advisors will teach you how to Explore, Prepare & Apply.

Testing Services

Testing Services exists to support students’ educational and professional goals through a variety of assessment programs. One of those, Prior Learning Assessment, allows advisors in the Pre-Professional Advising Center (PPAC) to advise you on how to prepare for your exams.

Veterans Programs and Services

The office of Veterans Programs and Services is a centralized office designed to provide comprehensive resources to veterans and Veteran Affairs benefit recipients to aid in their overall success at the University of Cincinnati. Additionally, our office provides guidance, advocacy, and outreach services for our student veteran population. We serve as a liaison between UC and the Department of Veterans Affairs while assisting our student veterans in their transition to higher education as well as the readjustment process back into civilian life.

Ways to Impress Your College Professor

1. Don’t miss the first day of class. Want to make a favorable first impression? Showing up on time makes the difference. Be there on time. It’s not that we don’t care; it’s just that when you send it, your presence matters.

2. Show up on time. Don’t be that student who is late or misses the first day. Contact your professor beforehand, explain the circumstances, and emphasize you’ll be there the rest of the semester. Connecting in advance of your absence suggests you care about your class and your first impression of the professor. See the beauty of this? We haven’t even met and I already like how you conduct business.

3. Make your personalized contribution to the classroom. The best compliment I give any student occurs at semester’s end when final exams are submitted. If you hear me say, “Lauren, your presence in my class made it better than it would have been without you,” know this: I was indeed impressed. Be THAT student.

4. Understand that once your final grade is recorded, it’s almost always a done deal. If you’re struggling with class material, approach me early for suggestions on how you can study better, test better, and score better. Don’t maintain status quo and assume the situation will resolve itself. We know some of you are on scholarship and/ or aiming for graduate school, but we can’t magically change numbers that are undesirable. Take care of your academic business while there’s still time.

5. Don’t bring me an apple; bring your best academic self. The internet, cell phones, iPods . . .all makes life more enjoyable, but that doesn’t mean you deserve special treatment. If you think your fellow students are forgiving of your past, you’re mistaken. Most dislike your blatant disrespect of the professor’s time or conclude you feel like you deserve special treatment or consideration. Respectfully, the simple truth is you don’t.

6. Good teachers make themselves available to students and do so through various means. In the classroom, during office hours, over the phone, via email, (increasingly and surprisingly), on Facebook, your questions deserve answers. But here’s the thing. Please don’t email me at 3:00 a.m. and expect us to send you a response by 6:30 in the morning. It’s a safe bet we’re still sleeping and won’t access our email until later in the day. So when you ask us if we received your email, we may just say no. It’s not that we don’t care, it’s just that when you sent it, we were off living other aspects of our lives.

7. Technology can be a wonderful thing. The internet, cell phones, iPads . . .all makes life more enjoyable, but that doesn’t mean you belong in English 1001. Know and respect your professor’s policy on electronics in the classroom. When your professor says they don’t want to see you texting in class, heed them. If their syllabus states no active laptops are allowed in class, oblige them. If the teacher offers no clear written or spoken policy, ask them what’s acceptable. Not only do you now know the answer, you’ve scored brownie points for expressing an interest in classroom protocol.

8. Offer in-class help. Perhaps you notice me struggling to move chairs and desks into a specific arrangement. Jump in and help move a few. I’m usually swarmed by students at class end; while I answer questions, erase the chalkboard. As I set up the PowerPoint presentation, see if there’s something you can do. Don’t think for a second in so doing you’re a geek or school pet. To the contrary, you’ve just given me descriptive examples to use in your future recommendation letter when I describe you as “observant” or “a team player”.

9. Make your personalized contribution to the classroom. The best compliment I give any student occurs at semester’s end when final exams are submitted. If you hear me say, “Lauren, your presence in my class made it better than it would have been without you,” know this: I was indeed impressed. Be THAT student.

1. Don’t miss the first day of class. Want to make a favorable first impression? Showing up from day one is a good start. Sure, some students don’t finalize their schedules until the end of the first week and may possibly miss. Most students, however, are officially enrolled and know exactly where they should be once that first day arrives. Skipping class communicates this course is not your priority. For some odd reason, professors are offended by such obvious nonchalance. Teachers always appreciate innate academic intellect. But we also note and applaud the scholar who tries their best. Blowing off the first day of class is never one’s best.

2. Show up on time. Don’t be that student who is late or misses the first day. Contact your professor beforehand, explain the circumstances, and emphasize you’ll be there the rest of the semester. Connecting in advance of your absence suggests you care about your class and your first impression of the teacher. See the beauty of this? We haven’t even met and I already like how you conduct business.

REAL WORLD EXPERIENCE

ProPEL
Division of Professional Practice and Experiential Learning

Are you ready to extend your college learning experiences outside of the traditional classroom? Are you ready to build your resume, explore a variety of career paths, and build a professional network before graduation?

The Division of Professional Practice and Experiential Learning (ProPEL) connects students with thousands of educational partners across the United States and abroad, through a variety of educational programs. Whether it’s testing the waters with a part-time academic internship, jump-starting your career with co-op placements, or engaging the community with a service learning class project, ProPEL is your first stop for real-world experiences with academic credit.

ProPEL Programs Include:

- Academic Internships
  - Students gain valuable professional skills through classroom preparation, followed by 10-30 hours of work per week in a professional internship position with individual support, reflection, and assessment
  - Open to all undergraduate students at UC who are not enrolled in a co-op program and provides the opportunity for students to earn academic credit for an internship
  - Faculty assistance with job matching, creating professional networks, and scheduling both on and off-campus interviews
  - Students can earn a Certificate of Academic Internships to build their resume, portfolio, and professional network before graduation
  - International internships are available with scholarships and grants available

- Cooperative Education (Co-op)
  - Students rotate between semesters in the classroom and semesters working locally, across the country, and even internationally, in paid full-time positions related to his/her major
  - More than 20 months of career-related experience enhances student learning by allowing students to apply classroom theory to real world applications. Rotating semesters of paid, full-time experience can help fund educational expenses, and make connections for full-time positions after graduation
  - Open to students in Engineering & Applied Science, IT, Fine Arts, Design, Architecture, and Planning programs (participation is mandatory), Communication (participation is optional)
  - UC created the first co-op program in the world over 100 years ago and was recently ranked in the top 5 Cooperative Education programs in the nation!

- International Experiences
  - Short- and extended international experiences, including co-ops, internships, and study tours
  - Visits to cultural, historical, and professional sites around the globe
  - Faculty-led instruction, preparation for travel, and study of destination countries
  - Interaction with global industry partners across multiple industries

- Pre-Health Internships
  - Students will advance connections between the classroom and healthcare careers through experiential learning in an internship
  - Students will develop effective career development resources tailored to a chosen healthcare career path
  - Open to all majors; search for course PD: 1000 Exploring Health Professions to get started

- Service Learning and Civic Engagement
  - Students connect passions and skill-sets to the service of others, through class projects and collaborations with not-for-profit and cause-based community organizations
  - Educational partners from all over the world provide unique opportunities to live, learn, and lead within local and global contexts
  - Supported by classes in every college at UC, giving students the opportunity to explore “hands-on” learning and earn academic credit for a variety of service projects
  - Students can earn a Certificate in Service Learning and Civic Engagement to build their resume, professional network, and marketable skills

- UC Forward
  - UC Forward courses bring students together from different disciplines, perspectives, and backgrounds
  - As members of trans-disciplinary teams, students work to develop actionable and innovative solutions to real-world problems, including student-identified issues on and around campus
  - Students learn how to collaborate across disciplines, brainstorm effectively, think outside of the box, and question the status quo
  - Students gain valuable leadership and professional development skills that aren’t taught in traditional courses
  - Courses may include domestic or international travel

- Undergraduate Research
  - Monthly Discovery Workshops educate students on how to find research opportunities, build a curriculum vitae, and prepare for graduate school, medical school, law school, or the workforce
  - Mentoring opportunities pair students with experienced undergraduates within their discipline and facilitate real-world understanding of research in their fields
  - USRC Student of the Month Award recognizes outstanding research, scholarly or creative work, and provides students with speaking opportunities in a Discovery Student Lecture Series
  - Annual Undergraduate Conference provides undergraduate opportunities to present faculty-mentored projects as posters, oral presentations, displays or performances

Where Can I Go?
We have long and short-term programs, service learning and internship opportunities to places as close as Canada and Mexico, and as far away as Africa, Asia and South America. If we don’t have a UC program in a specific place you’d like to go, we can help you find a program through another university.

Get Credit
All UC approved programs offer you the opportunity to earn credit. Many programs will help you satisfy General Education, foreign Language, major or minor requirements.

Find Funding
UC International Programs helps you identify both internal and external funding including individual grants based on financial need. Also, when you register for study abroad, you are considered a UC student. This means that most, if not all, financial aid can be applied to your program.

International Cooperative Education (Co-op)
Students in the College of Design, Architecture, Art and Planning (DAAP), the Lindner College of Business (LCB) or the College of Engineering and Applied Science (CEAS) may be admitted on a competitive basis to the international co-op program to work in various countries worldwide.

Learn More
We offer general information sessions daily and no appointment necessary. The information sessions are Monday through Friday at 11:00 AM and 2:00 PM in Swift 709 while school is in session.

We also encourage you to attend our concurrent session during summer orientation or come to our event during Welcome Weekend at the beginning of the year. It’s never too early to start planning to study abroad. We look forward to meeting you soon!
Understanding your Credit Evaluation Report

The UC Credit Evaluation Report (CER) shows how credits you have earned at other colleges and universities or by proficiency examination translate to course credit at the University of Cincinnati. The CER does not indicate how your credits will be applied toward specific degree requirements for your major.

The UC college that manages your academic major determines how your accepted transfer credits are applied toward degree requirements. That determination is made after you are admitted to an academic program.

What does "Under Review" mean?
An "Under Review" notation in the "Course Title/ Discipline" column means that you earned an acceptable grade and credit will be granted; however, UC faculty have not yet determined the transfer credit equivalency for this course. Once the evaluation is complete, your CER will be updated to reflect the new award.

How can I monitor "Under Review" courses and the complete evaluation of all my transcripts?
You can monitor the progress of your course review by logging into the student portal in Catalyst.

How do quarter hours translate to semester hours?
The credit hours for coursework transferred from a quarter institution will be converted to semester hours by dividing by two-thirds. For example, a 3.00 quarter hour course converts to a 2.00 semester hour course.

Are all external credits transferable?
Not always. The following circumstances could prevent an external course from being eligible for credit transfer:
- In most cases, a grade of D- or better is required for UC credit to be granted. However, transfer courses with a grade of D and sometimes C, may not be used to meet degree requirements in your degree program.
- Graduate courses are not eligible for undergraduate credit transfer.
- Remedial and developmental courses are not eligible for credit transfer.
- Audited courses are not eligible for credit transfer.
- Courses eligible for transfer must be taken at an institution that is accredited by one of the following regional accrediting associations: Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools; The Higher Learning Commission; Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges; Southern Association of Colleges and Schools/Commission on Colleges; Western Association of Schools and Colleges

Credit by Examination
The University of Cincinnati accepts credit for examinations such as Advanced Placement (AP), College-Level Examination Program (CLEP), International Baccalaureate (IB), DOST and International A-Level when minimum scores, established by UC, are earned for each exam. To receive credit for these examinations, have your grade report or transcript of grades sent to the Office of Admissions at the address on page 16. Minimum scores required for each exam are provided on the UC website at admissions.uc.edu/transfer.

Ohio Transfer Assurance Guide (TAG) Program
All approved TAG courses are built into the course equivalencies granted by the University of Cincinnati, however, TAG courses are not identified on the Credit Evaluation Report (CER). As required by the Ohio Board of Regents, all TAG awards are not only accepted by UC, they are also applied toward degree requirements within the corresponding TAG major.

Military Credit
The University of Cincinnati accepts military credit based on a course by course evaluation. In order to receive credit for your military coursework, send the following to the Office of Admissions at the address provided on page 16:
- Joint Services Transcript (JST) - or -
- Community College of the Air Force transcript - or -
- Army/ACE Registry Transcripting System (AARTS) transcript - or -
- Sailor/Manoe/AOE Registry Transcript (SMART) - or -
- U.S. Coast Guard Institute Transcript

To request a copy of your military transcript, follow the web links or call the phone numbers provided for each military branch/school at:

Military Credit
- Visit the UC Transfer Web page at admissions.uc.edu/transfer.html to learn more about transferring to UC. Topics include:
  - Schedule a visit to UC
  - Apply for admission
  - Undergraduate programs and admission requirements
  - Transferring financial aid
  - Transfer scholarship programs
  - How to appeal a transfer credit evaluation decision

What if I think the transfer credit evaluation is wrong?
Contact the Admissions Transfer Center and explain your concern. Occasionally, courses may be evaluated incorrectly due to a lack of information about the course, or because the course content has changed. We may require a copy of the current course description and/or syllabus for re-evaluation.

View and print your CER on-line by visiting your student portal in Catalyst.

Grading Scales and Definitions

Undergraduate Grades (effective Fall Semester 2012)

Grades at the University of Cincinnati will be determined using the following considerations. Pluses (+) and minuses (-) as appropriate to the grading scale are optional. The University Registrar uses grades to compute both term and cumulative grade point averages (GPA) based upon the credit level of the courses taken.

Comments

- “I” (Incomplete) and “IF” (Incomplete/Failure)
  - The incomplete grade is awarded as a final course grade (without grade point assignment) at the end of a term when a significant portion of course work has been satisfactorily completed, but not all of the course work has been completed. The incomplete grade is appropriate only when the completed course work is of passing quality and the student has had such hardship that completion of the remaining course work within the term timeline would present an additional hardship. Completion of the remaining course work does not include attending course sessions in a subsequent term.

- “T” (Audit)
  - Students may elect to audit a course instead of receiving academic credit for a course up to the 7th calendar day of the term. Prior to the 7th calendar day of the term, a student may elect to take the course for credit. However, after the 7th calendar day of the term, the student will not be permitted to take the course for credit during that specific term.

- “P” (Pass)
  - Given to those students who earned the equivalent “D-” grade or better in a designated Pass/Fail course.

- “UP” (Unsatisfactory)
  - Given to those students who did not earn the equivalent “D-” grade or better in a designated Pass/Fail course for zero credit hours.

- “SP” (In Progress-Satisfactory Progress) and “UP” (In Progress- Unsatisfactory Progress)
  - The “SP” and “UP” grades are used only in designated courses approved by College committees to have an extended grading period. Students have one year to complete the course. If the “SP” or “UP” grade remains on the student’s record at the end of one year after the SP/UP is submitted, these grades will change to the “I/F” (Failure) grade. The “I/F” grade is calculated into the GPA like the “F” grade.

- “NP” (Not Proficient)
  - The “NP” grade is used only for 1001-level and below English courses that require a level of proficiency to move through the sequence and that are approved by the appropriate College committees.

For additional information about Grading Scales go to: uc.edu/registrar/faculty_resources/grading_scales.html#undergrad

Note: This is abbreviated information. Be sure to check online for complete information.

Students who are considering an official or unofficial withdrawal from a course should consult the university’s policies and procedures and consider the implications of these actions with respect to financial planning including but not limited to financial aid, alternative loans and other sources of tuition funding.

Federal funds are awarded to the student with the expectation that the student will complete the course(s) for which he or she has registered in a given term. When a student does not complete the course(s), then it is necessary for the University to review the aid amount awarded to the student based on the courses that the student has dropped or withdrawn. Students who completely withdraw from courses for any term are subject to the Return of Title IV (R2T4) refund calculation as dictated by federal regulations. Instructors approached by a student wishing to discuss withdrawal from one or more courses should refer the student to the One Stop Student Service Center for information related to the student’s specific financial circumstances. Instructors are reminded that their final grade assignments must be based upon the student’s academic performance in the course and must not take into account the financial aid and/or personal financial consequences of that grade assignment on the student.
DEGREE AUDIT BASICS
The audit is a reporting tool used to track your progress toward degree completion. Your audit incorporates all coursework (UC and transfer) and applies it to university, college and program requirements. The audit will update automatically throughout your academic career, as you register for and complete additional courses.

WHAT THE AUDIT DOES
- Identifies all requirements needed to complete a degree program
- Displays the courses you have already completed, the grades received, and how each pertains to your degree requirements
- Specifies the courses and requirements that have not yet been satisfied
- Provides courses you may register for to complete the remaining requirements

ACCESSING THE DEGREE AUDIT
To access your degree audit, log into the student portal (https://catalyst.uc.edu). A login page will be presented. You will be prompted for your 6+2 and your password. We recommend bookmarking the log-in screen.

RUNNING AN AUDIT
After logging into the student portal you will notice a series of links indicating various system actions. Select the link for “get my degree audit” in order to have your audit report generated. Your declared program(s) will display in the report that is returned after selecting this link.

RUNNING A ‘WHAT-IF’ DEGREE AUDIT
Students also have the option of selecting the “run a what-if degree audit”. This option will allow a student to run degree audits for different programs. After selecting the “run a what-if degree audit” link in the portal, the what-if degree audit report page will appear. Select create a new report, enter the desired program and then click “submit request”. This will generate your what-if degree audit report by adding your coursework to an audit for the program you have selected.

FAQs
Should I still consult with my advisor?
Yes. Your audit is an advising tool. The audit can help you formulate your academic plan with an advisor. However, the college granting the degree is the final authority in determining a student’s completion of a degree.

Is my audit a transcript?
No. The audit is not intended to report student achievement to third parties.

Can the degree audit help if I am thinking about switching majors?
Yes. Running a what-if degree audit will allow you to view how your courses would apply to programs you have selected.

What should I do if I have credit that is not appearing on the audit?
For questions about the audit, contact your advisor.

Privacy of Student Records and FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law which affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. The intent of this Act is to protect the privacy of students and their records. This means that student record information (bill information, financial aid information, grades, etc.) cannot be shared with a parent or other third party without documented authorization from the student.

NUTS & BOLTS

New Student Checklist

- Waive Your Student Health Insurance
  All students registered for 6+ credit hours must have health insurance. Students with qualifying health insurance plans can waive the university sponsored health coverage at uc.edu/insurance

- Check Your Financial Aid Status
  Check the status of your financial aid application and your award online. Go to onestop.uc.edu/aidstatus

- Complete Loan Entrance Counseling
  First-time loan borrowers must complete loan entrance counseling in order to receive a student loan. Complete the counseling online at uc.edu/loancounseling

- Complete Your Loan Master Promissory Note
  First-time loan borrowers must complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) for each loan accepted on the award offer. Complete this important document at uc.edu/promnote

- View/pay your bill online
  Tuition bills are made available online rather than mailed. Visit uc.edu/bill to view your bill.

- Sign Up for a Payment Plan
  Need additional time to pay your bill? Payment plans offer an option to students unable to pay their entire bill by the deadline. For information, go to uc.edu/paymentplan

- Send Your Final High School Transcript to Admissions
  Final high school transcripts must be received by UC in order for financial aid to post to your student account. Contact UC Admissions at 513-556-1100 to confirm if the transcript has been received.

- Check Your Student Email
  The UC student email (UConnect) is the university’s primary means of communicating with students. Go to mail.uc.edu to access your email. Check your student email often for important updates, due dates, and deadlines!
DOING BUSINESS

Bearcat Card

Deposit money onto your Bearcat Card account (the debit card feature of the UC ID) and use it for purchases on and off campus. It’s activated when you deposit money to your account by cash, checks, or credit card.

The Bearcat Card (BCC) is more than your UC ID. It’s all you need at UC. Use it at more than 60 on-campus locations, including UC Bookstores, more than 250 vending machines, and more than 80 participating off-campus restaurants and stores. Save 10% everyday when you use your card for on-campus vending and laundry machines, and at the dining centers. The Bearcat Bargains program also includes valuable discounts at participating locations.

Present your Bearcat Card when you pay at a participating location and the amount of your purchase will automatically be deducted from your BCC account. There are no fees and no minimum balance. Your account balance will carry over semester to semester, or you can request a refund of your balance at the end of spring semester.

We suggest adding at least $1,050 to your Bearcat Card each semester to cover books and expenses. Here’s a breakdown of what those expenses could be:

With more than 15 years of campus banking experience, we’ve learned a lot about what students and parents want in a bank account. That’s why we help make banking easy and convenient – and why we are committed to helping students learn how to manage their money.

PNC Bank

Power up your Bearcat Card with PNC Bank, who works with UC to help make banking easy for students with 10 campus ATMs and a full-service branch in Tangeman University Center. PNC provides tools, services and financial education to make the transition to college life easier for you.

• We have 337 ATMs and 181 branches in the Cincinnati area, and, with online, mobile and text banking, it’s easy to access your money.

• We have the right tools for school! Virtual Wallet Student® provides you with control and a clear view of your money. It has tools to help you keep track of your spending and save easily, as well as a calendar customized for UC students. Avoid the monthly service charge for Virtual Wallet Student for six years with proof of active student status.2

• We’re parent-friendly, too! Virtual Wallet Student has features like “Parent Alerts” that can send your parents account alerts you set up, like low balances. We also have a “Money from Home” program with options for parents or guardians to send money — even if they’re not a PNC customer.

• We give you options. You can choose to link your Bearcat Card to your PNC Bank account(s) and it becomes your ATM card, too.

• We care about your education. So, we offer free financial education seminars on campus covering topics like Banking Basics, Budgeting, Identity Theft and Building Credit. We also offer one free incoming wire transfer per statement period and a courtesy overdraft fee waiver for the first NSF incident that may occur in the first 12 months of opening Virtual Wallet Student.4

1 A supported mobile device is needed to use Mobile Banking. Standard message and data rates may apply.
2 Proof of active enrollment in an educational institution is required to receive a monthly service charge waiver. This waiver will expire 6 years after it is assigned to your account.
3 Customers in the Student Banking program who are enrolled at a designated PNC Alliance or Access school will receive 1 free domestic or international incoming wire per statement period. Otherwise, a $15 incoming wire fee will apply to all incoming wires. If you don’t see your school at pnc.com/studentbanking, please call 1-877-PNC-1000 or stop by any PNC Bank.
4 Although the fee may be refunded, the transaction will be considered an overdraft or insufficient funds (NSF) occurrence when determining any subsequent overdraft or NSF fee.

5 THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW!

1. How much does it cost?
   $35.00 each semester. THAT’S IT! No interest charges or hidden costs.

2. Is everyone eligible for the payment plan?
   YES! Tuition Payment Plan is available to any UC student who wants a convenient, flexible solution to manage college costs.

3. Can I set up automatic payments?
   YES! When you sign up for the Tuition Payment Plan, you can choose to have your monthly payments deducted from a bank account. You can change your payment method anytime.

4. Can I still use other financial aid such as loans, grants or scholarships?
   YES! When you enroll in the Tuition Payment Plan, you determine the amount you want to pay over time. If you receive additional financial aid after enrolling, you can adjust your payments to reflect your new balance.

5. How do I enroll?
   EASY! Go to onestop.uc.edu

Tuition Payment Plan is a convenient option many families choose to help simplify their college finances. Tuition Payment Plan gives financial flexibility by allowing payment to be spread over several months. Make several smaller, more manageable monthly payments instead of writing one big check.
UC Bookstores
Your Education, Your Bookstore
As you begin your college adventure, you’ll need support – from your family, your professors, and your fellow students. But you’ll also need a place you can trust to have the right stuff – at the right time, and the right price. Our team of experts is here to help you get the most out of your college experience. And we’re not just in-store; shop uc.edu/bookstore for the largest online inventory of used textbooks, and get the same top-notch customer support.

Value and Convenience
We know what works for your classmate might not work for you – that’s why we offer so many choices in textbook format. Buy new, used or digital books, or opt to rent your books. Choose the program that suits you best! Not sure? One of our associates will be glad to help. We have a direct connection to your instructors, so we know exactly which materials you need each term. We are here to provide expert advice and help you explore options.

Big Savings on Campus
We know textbooks and course materials are expensive, so we’re constantly looking for ways to make learning more affordable. That’s why we are proud to offer our Rent-A-Text and digital programs, which save students more than ever before.

Integrity
We are a proud member of the Fair Labor Association (FLA), a nonprofit organization dedicated to ending sweatshop conditions in factories worldwide. Each of our general merchandise suppliers is also a member of the FLA, so you can shop with pride.

We Give Back
A portion of gross sales goes back to the University of Cincinnati. Your purchases at the UC Bookstores support your campus. The UC Bookstores also donate scholarships and other donations annually.

Making Textbook Selections a No-Brainer
We’ve got the course material options to satisfy your academic needs, without breaking your financial means.

Price Match Promise
Find a lower price? We’ll match it. If you find an identical in-stock textbook for rent or purchase priced lower elsewhere, we’ll match it with a gift card for the difference.

Rent-A-Text
You can avoid the sticker shock of buying your textbooks by renting them for the term. Textbook rentals through Rent-A-Text have saved students more than $400 million so far.

Digital Options
Digital textbooks and study guides give you remarkable new pathways for learning.

Used and New Books
Purchase your textbooks and get buyback cash at the end of the semester.

Used Books
• The best way to stretch your textbook dollar
• Be eco-friendly and save a tree
• Ideal if you want to keep your books

New Books
• Get clean, highlight-free content
• Great for long-term reference material
Buy? Rent? Digital?

It’s a brain teaser. Choose the option that best fits your study style and budget.

STUDY STYLE: If you prefer clean content, without someone else’s highlighting, consider a new book. If you prefer a lighter backpack and the convenience of one platform or device, consider going digital.

DOLLARS & SENSE: The breakdown below details each option (based on average cost and inventory):

Turning Books into Cash

What you need to know about selling back the books you’ve bought:

- Earn up to 50% of your purchase price, based on condition, demand, inventory and whether or not it will be used next term
- You’ll want to sell early (during finals week) since prices go down when more books are in stock
- You can sell your book back any time, even if you drop a class

Textbook Pre-order

Get your books when you register for classes or anytime thereafter!

Top 10 List for Students

1) 1-2-3 Support
With “123 Support,” students get the support they need now:
1. Visit the IT@UC Knowledge Base (KB), which provides numerous how-to articles on a wide array of topics from how to set up your UC email on your mobile device to instructions on how to install Microsoft Office. Visit the IT@UC Knowledge Base (KB) at kb.uc.edu.
2. Canopy offers 24/7 chat support. Phone and chat support are available 24/7 for Canopy tools such as Blackboard, Kaltura and Echo360. If you can’t find the answer you need in the KB, start a chat. Access 24/7 support via the Canopy homepage at canopy.uc.edu.
3. If you’ve visited the Knowledge Base and used the 24/7 Chat support and still need help, contact the IT@UC Service Desk at (513) 556-4357 (HELP) or via email at helpdesk@uc.edu.

2) ResNet
ResNet
Having an issue with your device? Stop by ResNet, located on MainStreet, and let one of our technicians troubleshoot it! (Non-warrantee hardware work is performed for a fee. ResNet does not sell any hardware, so you must purchase or provide any necessary parts.) Visit uc.edu/ucit for more information.

3) UC Mobile App & App Lab on Main
UC Mobile App
No Bearcat should be without the UC Mobile App – your mobile connection to campus maps, shuttle tracker, Blackboard, athletics and more! You can download the UC Mobile App for your Android or Apple Device. Scan the QR code below to download the app now!
App Lab on Main
Have a passion for development or an idea for the next big app? Stop by the UC App Lab on MainStreet to learn how you can collaborate with UC students, faculty and developers to gain experience in the exciting world of mobile app development.

4) Email
That username and password you used for Blackboard also logs you onto your UC email account. Microsoft Office 365 is your official school email, and also provides access to the full suite of Microsoft Office Web Applications such as Microsoft Word. Just go to mail.uc.edu and log in with your UC-issued username and password. Learn more at uc.edu/ucit.
It is easy to set up your student email account on your mobile device and computer! Just search Student Email Setup at kb.uc.edu for a list of detailed instructions.
If you have further questions about setting up your student email account on your mobile device or computer, call the Service Desk at 513-556-4357 or email helpdesk@uc.edu.

5) SecureWireless
UC’s campus is 100% wireless. That means you can access our secured wireless network from every building and select green spaces on campus just by using your UC username and password. Whether you have a smart phone, tablet, or laptop, you never have to worry about staying connected to what matters to you. You can even print from your dorm room with wireless printing in residence halls.
For more information, check out the Get Online section at uc.edu/ucit.

6) Computer Labs
If you don’t have a computer, don’t worry! We do! We’ve got over 400 computers or kiosks all over campus. And when it’s late, you can head over to UCIT@Langsam – our 24-hour computer lab on the fifth floor of Langsam Library. You’ll find 100 computers, quiet study areas and breakout rooms with SMART Boards. You’ve got access on your time, any time!
For a complete list of lab locations and hours, visit labs.uc.edu/labhours.

7) Charging Stations
A long day on campus doesn’t have to mean the death of your phone or tablet’s battery. GoCharge, UC’s free mobile device charging stations, allows you to securely lock your device and leave it so it can charge while you’re away.
Check out our GoCharge stations located in Center Court (student dining hall), UCIT@Langsam (the 24-hour computer lab in Langsam Library), TUC Food Court and Zimmer Hall.

8) Info Security
IT@UC’s Office of Information Security is here to help the UC community maintain a secure computing environment, but safety is everyone’s responsibility! Visit our website, uc.edu/infosec, or connect with Information Security at UC_OIS on Twitter for tips on how to keep your computer and information safe – like learning how to protect your personal information from being stolen with email phishing scams.
Top 5 Tips

Below are the top 5 tips to help students preserve their information’s security:

1. Use a passcode or pattern lock to secure your smartphone or mobile device
2. Do not respond to emails from people you do not know
3. Do not click on links or email attachments from people you do not know
4. Install anti-virus software on your computer. —UCIT OIS offers free Intel Security (McAfee) anti-virus software on its website at uc.edu/antivirus
5. Visit uc.edu/infossec/info/videos for more tips!

9) Box@UC
Students receive unlimited, secure file storage in the cloud through Box, so you can access your files online any time, anywhere, from any device. Activate your account now at uc.edu/ucit/box.

10) Lynda.com
Lynda.com is an online video-training library with more than 4,564 software, career-development and technology training titles that is FREE to access anywhere using your UC username and password. Lynda's video courses are taught by industry experts, teachers and professionals AND allow you to earn certificates of completion!
Visit uc.edu/lynda or click the Lynda.com logo at canopy.uc.edu to log on and start viewing.

Getting Online

In the Residence Halls: SafeConnect
To improve service to our students, IT@UC utilizes SafeConnect to access the UC Network (UCnet) and the Internet from the dormitories. Students will be able to access the network from the dorms once they have gone through the SafeConnect logon procedure for their corresponding Operating System.

Students do not need to set up SafeConnect on mobile devices.

To learn how to set up SafeConnect on your computer, search SafeConnect at kb.uc.edu for a list of detailed instructions.
Once you have configured SafeConnect, read the following section for more information about connecting to SecureWireless, UC’s wireless network.

If you have further questions about setting up SafeConnect, call the IT@UC Service Desk at 513-556-4357 or email helpdesk@uc.edu.

On Campus: SecureWireless
SecureWireless is the wireless Internet connection for students, staff and faculty. It consists of more than 4,000 access points that provide coverage in all dorm spaces, buildings and select green spaces. Security on the wireless network is incorporated with WPA2 enterprise, which encrypts the data with the Advanced Encryption Standard (AES).
Access onto the wireless network requires you to login with your UC username and password.

To connect to SecureWireless, find SecureWireless under the list of available wifi connections on your laptop or mobile device. Enter your UC username and password, click connect and you’re done!
For a list of detailed instructions, search SecureWireless at kb.uc.edu.
If you have further questions about connecting to SecureWireless, call the IT@UC Service Desk at 513-556-4357 or email helpdesk@uc.edu.

Wireless Printing
Wireless printing is available in all residence halls and libraries on campus!
For instructions on wireless printing…
• in the libraries, visit print.uc.edu/printers/info.
• in the residence halls, search Wireless Printing at kb.uc.edu.

Devices
Residence Hall users that need assistance connecting their devices (Chromecast, Game Consoles, SmartTVs and other Set-top boxes) to wireless in the residence halls… search BYOD at kb.uc.edu
Public Safety from the UC Police

The Department of Public Safety at the University of Cincinnati is committed to providing a safe campus environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors. The men and women of UC's Department of Public Safety work hand-in-hand with members of the City of Cincinnati police and fire departments and other community partners to prevent crime and provide vital safety services and resources.

UC POLICE

The UC Police Department (UCPD) is a fully empowered law enforcement agency that operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. All police officers are certified by the state of Ohio and have full police authority.

SERVICES

At UC, we are committed to providing you with an innovative, safe and life-changing academic experience. The university provides many safety programs and resources to cultivate a safe campus environment:

- 9-1-1 COMMUNICATIONS CENTER
  UC is one of the few universities in the country that has its own 9-1-1 system. The Communications Center is staffed 24 hours a day, 365 days a year by certified dispatchers that are trained to answer 9-1-1 emergency and non-emergency calls. If there is an emergency and you need a police officer, rescue unit or fire truck, pick up any campus phone and dial 9-1-1. If you call 9-1-1 using a cell phone, the call will be sent to the nearest cell tower (city or county). Tell the dispatcher you are a UC student and they will transfer you to UC’s Dispatch.

- CAMPUS SAFETY NETWORK
  Members of the UC Community, including parents and local Cincinnati residents, can sign up to receive text message and email alerts about campus safety-related events, including emergencies. The Campus Safety Network is powered by Nixle. To sign-up visit www.uc.edu/publicsafety and click on the Records and Reports page. You must opt-in to receive messages.

- NIGHTRIDE
  NightRide is a free evening shuttle service, operated by students, that provides transportation for faculty, staff and students to and from locations within a one mile radius around UC’s Uptown campus. Call 513-556-RIIDE (7433). A UC ID is required and users may take one non-UC person as a guest. Hours are Sunday - Wednesday: 8 p.m to midnight and Thursday - Saturday 8 p.m. – 2 a.m.

- LIVESAFE APP
  This free app, available through iTunes or Google Play, connects users with UC Police via text or phone. LiveSafe’s SafeWalk feature also allows family or friends to monitor users in real-time as they walk to a destination.

- SAFETY AMBASSADOR PROGRAM
  Safety Ambassadors offer a helping hand to the public and provide additional support for UC Police by deterring unwanted activity, reporting suspicious behavior and assisting with general safety and quality of life issues. Ambassadors monitor areas surrounding UC’s Uptown campus and can be seen walking or patrolling on bikes and segways. Our Ambassadors wear red shirts and can provide a walking escort if needed. Call 513-446-2968. Hours are 6 p.m. - 2:30 a.m.

- CAMPUS WATCH
  Much like our Ambassadors, UCPD’s Campus Watch team provides outreach and assistance to UC Police on-campus. Campus Watch employs students on a part-time basis to walk UC’s Uptown campus, including buildings and garages, assist students, faculty and students as needed and report suspicious activity.

- BLUE HELP PHONES
  More than 280 Blue Help Phones are strategically located around UC’s campuses. They provide a direct contact line to UC Police for both emergency and non-emergency needs. The phones can be phone inside blue boxes in garages near stairwells and elevators or on black poles with a blue light.

- MOTORIST ASSIST
  Parking Services performs jump starts and assists getting keys out of locked cars. This is a free service, however, the requestor will be required to sign an authorization form.

- BEARCATS TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM
  The BTS shuttle routes operate at various times during the academic terms and connect UC’s Uptown Campus with the nearby neighborhood, and local and Greater Cincinnati entertainment areas. Call 513-556-4424 for more information or visit uc.edu/shuttle.

- SAFE AND SECURE
  The Safety and Security website is a one-stop resource hub for information about campus safety and security policies, events, and resources. It can be found at http://safety.uc.edu.

- SAFETY TIPS/CRIME PREVENTION

  Students, faculty and staff must work together to maintain a safe place to live and work and learn.

Get the App

1. Download “LiveSafe” from Google Play or the App Store.
2. Sign up with your name and info.
3. Select “University of Cincinnati” as your school.
4. Text or Call UCPD as needed.

Fire Safety

Parents and Guardians,

The University understands the vital role you play in ensuring your student’s success. We want to continue our partnership with you when your student begins planning for housing following their first year. Please know we have resources on our website to help alleviate some of the stress found when leasing an off-campus property:

offcampushousing.uc.edu

The Division of Student Affairs along with University safety officers and the City of Cincinnati Fire Department are committed to fire safety education and awareness for all UC students. Whether a student lives on-campus or off-campus, safety of students is paramount. It is important to know and understand aspects of living and behaviors which may contribute to an unsafe environment. The Safe Housing Initiative was created to support these efforts.

Students — Be Smart about Fire Safety

- Make sure smoke detectors are installed properly, tested monthly, and batteries are replaced every 6 months.
- Never remove, cover, tamper, or disable smoke alarms or detectors. It is illegal to activate a fire alarm in the case of NO fire.
- Learn the building evacuation plan:
  - If you live off-campus, have a fire escape plan with two ways out of every room.
  - If you live on-campus, treat all fire alarms seriously and adhere to the building evacuation plan.
- If you smoke, smoke outside and only where permitted.
- Exercise care when burning candles and fully extinguish them when not directly supervised.
- Keep electrical items and kitchen appliances away from flammable materials.
- Always call 9-1-1 for fire emergencies.

Parents — How to support fire safety?

- Have ongoing discussions with your student about fire prevention and safety. Keep in mind typical residential fire hazards, but also consider fire dangers that are prevalent during various seasons.
- Fire inspections can be requested by both landlords and tenants. Have a discussion about safety with property owners and evaluate safety measures prior to signing a lease.

Email: thinkaboutit@uc.edu

Dear New Student:

We know you are excited about coming to the University of Cincinnati! Before you arrive on campus this fall, you must complete an online course called Think About It. An email invitation should be sent to your UC email account on July 11th.

We believe you will enjoy this engaging course. This interactive and online training contains useful information about developing healthy relationships, practicing consent, and learning about Title IX issues as well as UC’s policies and resources.

The deadline for finishing Think About It is September 2nd. You can access the course through your UC email at any point. It automatically saves your progress, so you can return to the spot where you left off the next time you log in.

For more information or if you have any questions, you can visit uc.edu/titleix/thinkaboutit.html.

Am I eligible for health care?

All UC students are eligible for quality care at University Health Services (UHS).
I’m generally healthy. Why is having health insurance so important?
Health insurance safeguards you from considerable costs of hospital stays, surgical procedures, doctor visits, prescriptions, and preventive care. Unfortunately accidents and illness do happen. Even a minor illness or injury could create a major financial burden that could greatly impact your success at college. Preventive care, including screening tests that detect health problems in earlier, more treatable stages, are covered by most insurance plans. Planning for your future should include both your academic success and your health.

As a college student, what should I look for when purchasing an insurance plan?
There are basics that you can look for in an insurance plan that will benefit you as a UC student. Does your plan offer coverage for providers and hospital facilities in the Cincinnati area? Does your plan offer reasonable co-pay or co-insurance for doctor visits? Do you have any plans to study abroad? Will your plan cover travel-related health care? As a college student, it is important to choose an insurance plan that not only fits you best, but that also offers monetary savings and convenience.

What other options are important to explore?
Just as your physical wellness is important, so is your mental wellness. Most health plans cover behavioral health, but the deductible, copayment, and co-insurance amounts may be higher than you’d expect. Do you see any specialists, like an orthopedist? Will you need an allergist, dermatologist, or endocrinologist? If so, do you know how your plan works in Cincinnati and whether or not you need a referral?

Acronyms like HMO, PPO, and POS can be confusing. What do they mean?
HMO, PPO, and POS are all different types of managed care plans which are characterized by having a network of physicians and hospitals. If you pick a provider or hospital that is listed in the network, your out of pocket expenses are lower. If you see a doctor that is not in-network, however, you might be shocked when you get your bill. It’s always smart to check out the details of your plan before making an appointment.

CDHPs – what is this?
Consumer directed or consumer choice plans (CDHP) give the consumer more control over health care spending. Consumers are given a type of health account that they can draw on to pay for qualified medical expenses. The plan will usually have high upfront deductible costs before covering major medical expenses. This means that you would be responsible to pay such things as doctor visits, testing, and hospital stays until you have reached the agreed deductible costs.

Will University Health Services (UHS) accept my insurance card?
University Health Services does accept most insurance plans, however, it is always recommended that you check with your insurance company to verify that University Health Services is in your network. Since UHS serves only students and employees of the University of Cincinnati you will not find UHS listed on any “how to find a provider” insurance web site. We will be listed as University of Cincinnati Physicians Company. If your insurance covers University of Cincinnati Physicians Company, then you can be seen using your insurance coverage at UHS.

I want to make an appointment at UHS. What costs should I expect and how can I make payment?
A typical office visit will involve registration, nurse evaluation, provider visit, possible laboratory testing, and a possible pharmacy visit. Insurance plan co-pay or the option of self-pay is due at the time of service. Methods of payments accepted include cash, check, credit card, Bearcat card, HSA card, and FSA (Benny) card.

Health Benefits 101
Knowing details about your health insurance plan is beneficial to you and your pocket when it comes to managing your health as a student. Do you know what type of health insurance plan you have or should purchase? If your answer is no, it’s time to brush up on some basics!

FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

UC International Services
We’re here to support you!

The staff of UC International Services is committed to serving the needs of international students who attend the University of Cincinnati. We advise international students on visa and immigration issues. Through our programs and services we also help integrate students into all aspects of campus and community life. If you have any questions about immigration, visa or cultural issues, you should contact our office.

iBearcatsGlobal

Everything you do with UC International Services from the point of admission through graduation will be facilitated by the use of our iBearcatsGlobal system. You will use it to do everything from updating biographical information to requesting program extensions. ibearcatsglobal.uc.edu/

Get Involved!

UC International Services hosts a variety of events throughout the academic year that are specifically for international students. UC International will announce events on Blackboard, Facebook, Twitter @ UC_Global, as well as our UC International Service listserv. You can join the listserv by sending an email to UCIS@listserv.uc.edu to stay up-to-date on all UC International events.

There are more than 30 student organizations at UC that are specifically for cultural/ethnic student groups. A full list of student organizations can be found on the Student Activities and Leadership Development (SALD) website. Go to uc.edu/sald and click on “Student Organization Listing.” Examples include groups for Chinese students as well as the Indian Student Organization.

We recommend peerTransfer

All international students should use peerTransfer to process tuition payments from overseas. peerTransfer makes life more simple and saves you money because it allows you to pay your tuition from your home country, without having to wait to pay tuition upon exchanging cash.

Eating on Campus

With three great award-winning dining centers (CenterCourt, StadiumView Café, MarketPointe@Siddall), you’ll never go hungry. The dining centers are all-you-care-to-eat with a variety of food to please even the pickiest of palates and are also vegetarian/vegan-friendly. First year residential students can choose between the Unlimited Plan and the 186 Block Plan. The Unlimited Meal Plan is preferred by 95% of first year students. Commuters and upper-class residents can choose between the residential meal plans or campus dining passes.

Dining Centers

Residential Plans and Campus Dining Passes accepted at our three dining centers:
- CenterCourt
- MarketPointe@Siddall*
- StadiumView Café

MainStreet & Other Campus Eateries

- Burger King
- Bearcat Lounge (Kingsgate Marriott)
- Caminetto (Kingsgate Marriott)

Housing

Studies have shown that students residing on campus perform better academically and are more likely to graduate. View residence hall communities and apply online. You’ll see that all residence hall rooms are furnished and typically include air conditioning, a microfridge, cable TV service, and high-speed wireless Internet. The chances of receiving your selected housing preferences are improved by submitting your application and fee as soon as possible.

It's located on the Medical Campus; hop on the complimentary Bearcat shuttle and/or Marriott’s shuttle service, both of which service the Uptown main campus. When booking your room, ask for the UC Affiliate Rate discount (based on room availability).
Bearcat Bands

Comprised of the university’s campus band program, the Bearcat Bands serve as both an academic class and a student group. The core of the band performs in three primary overlapping functions: marching band, pep band, and concert band. In addition to these, many members of the organization participate in smaller satellite groups such as jazz band, winter drum line, winter guard, and a number of other ensembles.

Resident Education & Development

In Resident Education and Development, staff are focused on engaging students to develop a holistic experience, creating an environment where students live together and learn alongside one another. Resident Advisors, who live amongst their fellow students, provide activities for social, academic, and leadership opportunities in the residence halls. The residence halls also have full-time staff members called Residence Hall Directors (RHDs). RHDs are masters-level professionals who can be contacted at the front desk to ensure all residential needs are met. Students will be encouraged to become active participants in their hall communities. This includes getting involved in the safety and security of all of their peers, being inclusive of the diverse perspectives that are present in their community and becoming active in the Residence Hall Association and hall government.

IDENTITY & INCLUSION

Inclusion and Retention

The Student Affairs Department of Inclusion and Retention works to assist, recognize, engage, advocate, and provide a safe place for students to feel connected and have a sense of community and support.

African American Cultural and Resource Center

The AACRC’s goal is to assist in building a positive, well-developed and balanced environment for students. The center helps students excel by addressing the academic, social, spiritual, personal and cultural needs of black students at the university.

Ethnic Programs and Services

EPS enhances the growth and development of students of color and addresses the diverse needs of the campus community. EPS educates and encourages our student body and community at large to become more enlightened about the student of color experience and is home to the Darwin T. Turner Scholars program.

BEARchats Conversation Partners Program — EPS is the new home of the BEARchats, which creates cross-cultural friendships and enhances student understanding of UC’s diverse student body.

LGBTQ Center
Committed to diversity, equity, leadership development, and intellectual inquiry with particular respect to sexual orientation and gender identity, the center is an inclusive campus office that provides a welcoming environment. The center facilitates LGBTQ visibility by promoting and enhancing understanding, acceptance, and awareness regarding LGBTQ issues.

Women’s Center

Promoting equitable and safe environments on campus for women through advocacy, education, and research.

Celebrating over 35 years of service to the campus community!

The Women’s Center is committed to encouraging equitable educational experiences for women through programming and policy building in the areas of student safety, institutional change, and activism development.

Students can build leadership and activism skills through our Women in Leadership and Learning (WILL) and Activists Coming Together (ACT) programs, and meet new people during our social programs.

The center encourages you to explore our website and stop into the office to find more information on available programs and resources!

Dear Parents and Families,

I am excited to welcome you and your students to the University of Cincinnati for 2016 Bearcat Bound Orientation. Your students have selected a school whose faculty and academic programs stand among the best in the country and students receive the support they need to succeed.

The Division of Student Affairs is with your student from the beginning of their collegiate journey until the time they walk across the stage at Commencement. Our staff is committed to creating a student experience that is not only welcoming and inclusive but also inspires students to explore, grow, and pursue their dreams.

Parents and Families play an important role in this process. Your continued support during their college experience is crucial to their success at UC. Thank you for partnering with us. During your visit, spend time getting to know the campus and how your students will be spending their days. The University has a rich history and has undergone a recent transformation that resulted in recognition as one of the nation’s most beautiful campuses.

Come back and visit your students any time but especially during Homecoming, Family Weekend, and Sporting events. Each incoming class is unique and each individual student is valued. Again, welcome to the UC family and it’s a good day to be a Bearcat!

Debra S. Merchant, JD

Guidelines for the Small Group Flags

1. Each flag will be judged by the SOLs based on the following criteria:
   - Creativity
   - Artistic design
   - UC symbols
   - Symbols of the ‘Just Community’
   - Use of color and fullness

2. Flags that depict symbols of drugs, alcohol, vulgar sex, or dehumanization will be forfeited from the competition.

3. Use of the following UC symbols is strongly encouraged:
