

LSAT Prep and Law School Application Timeline

Junior Year

Month	Task
June, July, August	❖ Sign up for and review LSAC Law Hub Admissions Unmasked on Demand to build foundation for understanding the process
September/October/November	❖ Familiarize yourself with LSAT format and questions through LSAC Law Hub Free Resources ❖ Register for and attend Law School Application and Personal Statement Writing Workshop ❖ Set your score range goal through research: ABA 509 Standard Disclosure, LSAC Law School Search Tool
December/January/February	❖ Take free full length, timed diagnostic test ❖ Research test prep options and make decision ❖ Create test prep schedule to include 12-15 hours week; include when you will take full length practice tests ❖ Attend Law School Application and Personal Statement Writing Workshop if you haven't done so already
March	❖ Begin test prep; 12-15 hours per week, stay committed to schedule ❖ Register for June LSAT – Cost is $215 ❖ “Plant the seed” for letters of recommendation
April/May	❖ Continue Prep; 12-15 hours per week; include full length practice exams ❖ Deadline to register for June test is early – mid April ❖ Begin draft of Personal Statement
June	❖ Take final practice test ▪ If score is not in goal range, meet with PPAC advisor and reassess. Consider retake in August or September and strategize for stronger score. ▪ If score is within goal range, sit for test; complete Writing portion within one week; receive score by end of June.
July	❖ Pay for ($195) and begin completing LSAC Credential Assembly Service ❖ Request transcripts from every institution where you earned college credit ❖ Meet with PPAC advisor to review personal statement draft
August	❖ Continue to work on personal statement draft and meet with PPAC advisor ❖ Make “final ask” for letters of recommendation and include letter writer contact information in Credential Assembly Service ❖ Make final decision on which schools you want to apply to
September – November 15	❖ Complete and submit application to chosen schools
December	❖ End of the calendar year is the absolute latest you should submit applications
January	❖ Complete FAFSA

Senior Year