

3361:10-5-05

Organization: executive vice president for academic affairs and provost.

- (A) The executive vice president for academic affairs and provost shall, under the general supervision of the president, exercise executive leadership and supervision in all matters relating to the academic life and the academic budgets of the university. The executive vice president for academic affairs and provost shall have general supervision over the dean and university librarian; the university dean of the graduate school; and the deans in all colleges and other academic officers.
- (B) Bylaws and amendments thereto of the colleges and faculties must be approved by the executive vice president for academic affairs and provost before they become effective. Bylaws and amendments of the colleges in the medical center shall be reviewed by the senior vice president for health affairs before being submitted to the executive vice president for academic affairs and provost for approval.
- (C) Notwithstanding their responsibility to the executive vice president for academic affairs and provost, the deans shall carry out their roles as presiding officers of their respective faculties.
- (D) The president may assign additional responsibilities to the executive vice president for academic affairs and provost as deemed necessary.
