

3361:20-31-06 Fees: delinquent obligations and prerequisites not met.

(A) Delinquent obligations.

Students shall be responsible for discharging all their university financial obligations, such as payment of deferred fees, housing fees, tuition, laboratory fees, matriculation fees or delinquent obligations. Students who are delinquent in paying charges accrued in a previous quarter may be denied the right to register in classes for future courses and to receive transcripts, grades, or diplomas until such fees are paid in full.

(B) Enrollment cancellation.

A student's enrollment in any course shall be administratively cancelled if the student fails to satisfy established course and/or class prerequisites. A student whose enrollment is cancelled in accordance with this rule shall receive a refund of any tuition paid for that course.
