

3361:30-16-01Compensation and attendance: emergency closing.

- (A) The university of Cincinnati is always officially open. During periods of severe inclement weather, public emergency, or other crisis, the president or a designated cabinet officer may announce, through the university of Cincinnati electronic mail system and through the local news media, that some or all of the university's offices and facilities are closed for part or all of a workday. (See rule 3361:10-55-01 of the Administrative Code regarding the announcement of emergency closures at the university of Cincinnati.)
- (B) This rule identifies those employees who are required to report to or remain at work during such emergency closings and sets forth the policies governing attendance and compensation that will be in effect for all employees during these periods.
- (C) The announcements regarding closings shall specify which work units are to be closed. Employees in the closed units shall not report to work. Exceptions are listed in paragraphs (D)(1) and (D)(2) of this rule. The official closing time of the university will be determined by the time/date sent to recipients on the "Triple D" listserv or its equivalent.
- (D) The following groups of employees are expected to report to or remain at work as scheduled during emergency closings:
 - (1) Employees whose work units are not closed. Such units will always include the following essential units that never close under any circumstances:
 - (a) The college of medicine;
 - (b) University police;
 - (c) Office of residence life/housing units;
 - (d) Utility plants;
 - (e) Emergency maintenance operations;
 - (f) Any research unit where the integrity of the research must be preserved;
 - (g) Service units that routinely operate on a seven day per week, twenty-four hour per day service schedule.
 - (2) Employees whose work units are closed but who are specifically directed to report or remain at work by their administrative unit head. Documented approval from the appropriate vice president is required for these employees.

- (E) The following attendance and compensation policies shall be in effect for employees required to report or remain at work during periods of emergency closing:
- (1) All employees who are required to report or remain at work (i.e., employees whose work units are not closed or those called into work by their administrative head) shall work as scheduled. Any employee who is required to work but unable to do so as scheduled, for whatever reason, must contact his/her administrative head at least one hour in advance of the employee's starting time to report his/her absence. Current policies regarding time off requests shall apply.
 - (2) Hourly paid employees who report to or remain at work as required during a closing will be paid time and one-half unless directed otherwise by a collective bargaining agreement. Salaried employees who report or remain at work as required will receive pay at their regular salary.
 - (3) Current policies regarding time off shall apply: Essential hourly employees who do not report to work must use vacation, compensatory time or time off without pay. Essential employees who live in counties where the sheriff has declared a "Level 3" snow emergency will receive pay at their regular straight time rate. Non-essential hourly employees, who report to work without being told to, will receive regular pay.
- (F) The following compensation policies shall be in effect for those employees whose work units are closed and who are not asked to work:
- (1) Hourly and salaried employees receive pay at their regular wages.
 - (2) Hourly employees who report to work without being told will receive pay at their regular straight time rate.
 - (3) Employees prescheduled for vacation, sick or compensatory time off prior to the emergency-closing announcement may not rescind their time off request after the announcement.

- (4) When it is announced that a segment of the university campus will be closed for the remainder of the day, hourly paid employees requesting to leave work earlier than the scheduled closing time must have the approval of the appropriate administrative head and must charge the additional hours of absence, prior to the official closing, to accrued compensatory time, accrued vacation time, or leave without pay, in that order.
