Colleges and divisions: faculties of colleges and divisions and their powers.

- (A) Each college and division faculty shall consist of the president of the university, the senior vice president for academic affairs and provost, the dean, professors, associate professors, assistant professors, instructors, and others of academic or administrative rank as may be elected thereto by the respective faculty with the approval of the dean.
- (B) Each faculty may meet at stated times agreed upon by itself and the dean or upon call of the president or dean and shall determine the academic or other qualifications prerequisite for voting at its meetings.
- (C) Subject to the approval of the senior vice president for academic affairs and provost, each faculty shall make its own regulations governing the admission of students, the courses of instruction to be offered, grading policy, degree requirements, recommendations for degrees, honors, and prizes, and such other matters as may be within its jurisdiction. The college deans shall ensure that each faculty department head or school director files a current copy of such regulations, as to each degree, with the senior vice president for academic affairs and provost.
