

3361:50-81-14 College of law: advanced standing.

- (A) Students attending law schools fully accredited by the "Association of American Law Schools" and the "American Bar Association" may be considered for admission with advanced standing.
- (B) Law school work will be evaluated and credited toward the "Juris Doctor" requirements as determined by the associate dean. A maximum of two years of credit can be applied. The right is reserved not to grant credit for work done in another law school.
- (C) A student should submit the transfer application and the application fee, a "Law School Data Assembly Service" report, law school transcript, recommendations from two law school professors, and a letter of good standing from the dean or registrar. No applicant will be admitted who is not in good standing with a law school previously attended.

Effective: August 23, 1996

Certification: Virginia L. Steiner signature
Virginia L. Steiner
Executive Secretary and Clerk, Board of Trustees

Date: August 5, 1996

Promulgated under: R.C. Section 111.15
Rule amplifies: R.C. 3361.03;
 R.C. 3345.06.
Prior effective date: March 16, 1978