2019 SARAH GRANT BARBER OUTSTANDING ADVISING AWARD

AWARD DESCRIPTION
The Sarah Grant Barber Outstanding Advising Award is granted annually to a professional academic advisor, faculty advisor, advising administrator, and advising support staff that supports the UC student population. The award is sponsored by UCAADA and the Office of Advising & Academic Services.

AWARD CRITERIA
The Selection Committee will evaluate nominations on the evidence of qualities and practices that distinguish the nominee as an outstanding individual in one of the aforementioned categories. Evaluative categories may include:

1. Integration of NACADA’s Core Values and CAS Standards and Guidelines for Academic Advising
   a. NACADA’s Core Values: Advisors are responsible...
      • to the individuals they advise.
      • for involving others, when appropriate, in the advising process.
      • to their institutions.
      • to higher education in general.
      • to their educational community.
      • for their professional practices and for themselves personally.
   b. CAS Standards and Guidelines for Academic Advising categories:
      • Mission
      • Program
      • Organization and Leadership
      • Human Resources
      • Ethics
      • Law, Policy, and Governance
      • Diversity, Equity, and Access
      • Institutional and External Relations
      • Financial Resources
      • Technology
      • Facilities and Equipment
      • Assessment and Evaluation

2. Participation in and support of professional development (i.e. advising research, publication, workshop attendance or presentation)
3. Leadership and positive influence among colleagues
4. Outstanding rapport with students

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Wednesday, March 27th by 5pm

APPLICATION COMPONENTS
1. Completion of the online nomination form, available here.
2. Include a letter in support of your nomination, telling the awards committee how this advisor meets the above qualities.
